Help us make our homebuying resources better

We're always working to improve CFPB's Owning a Home tools and resources. And we're writing a blog series this spring that will feature frequently asked questions from homebuyers like you.

Is there something else about the homebuying or mortgage process you want to know? Use the form below to send us your questions or suggestions. We can't respond individually to questions, but we do read them all.

If you have a problem with your mortgage and want to submit a complaint, please don't use this form. Use our online complaint form instead.

Please do not include sensitive information like your name, account number, or social security number in this field.

Type your question or suggestion here.

Optional: tell us a bit more about yourself.
This information helps us understand your question better.
