ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES, THESE RECORDS MAY BE USED, DISCLOSED OR REFERRED:

- a. To the public on approved loans, information is limited to recipient name and address, term and rate of the loan, and the apportioned amount of the loan for real or personal property loss.
- b. To provide information to potential investors who are interested in bidding on loans made available by the Agency in a sale of assets. Investors will be required to execute a confidentiality agreement prior to reviewing any record or information.
- c. To the public, under certain conditions, on losses incurred by the government due to non-payment of obligations by individuals. In these cases, the name and address of the obligator and amount incurred (amount written-off from Agency assets) will not be released to the public unless the borrower consents to disclosure or is required pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act.
- d. To the Federal, State, local or foreign agency or professional organization which has responsibility for investigating, prosecuting or enforcing violations, statute rules, regulations or orders issued when the Agency locates a violation or potential violation of law whether arising by general or program statute, or by regulation, rule or order.
- e. To request information from a Federal, State or local agency or a private credit agency maintaining civil, criminal or other information relevant to determining an applicant's suitability for a loan; this may be requested individually or part of a computer match.
- f. In response to a request from a State or Federal agency in connection with the issuance of a grant, loan or other benefit by that agency which is relevant to their decision on the matter; this may be requested individually or part of a computer match.

g. To other Federal agencies to conduct computer matching programs to locate delinquent SBA borrowers who are receiving Federal salaries or benefit payments and programs to identify delinquent SBA borrowers receiving federal salaries or benefit payments. Disclosure will be made if the records indicate the loan is in default, at least 30 days past due or to update a previous disclosure. SBA will make disclosures to obtain repayments of debts under the provisions of the Debt Collection Act of 1982 by voluntary repayment, or administrative or salary offset procedures.

h. To a consumer reporting agency.

i. To provide the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) with access to an individual's records for an official audit to the extent the information is relevant to the IRS's function.

j. To a court, magistrate, grand jury or administrative tribunal, opposing counsel during such proceedings or in settlement negotiations when presenting evidence.

k. To a Congressional office from an individual's record, when that office is inquiring on the individual's behalf; the Member's access rights are no greater than the individual's.

l. To SBA volunteers, contractors, interns, grantees, experts and who have been engaged by SBA to assist in the performance of a service related to this system of records and who need access to the records in order to perform this activity. Recipients of these records shall be required to comply with the requirements of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, 5 U.S.C. 552a.

m. To the Department of Justice (DOJ) when any of the following is a party to litigation or has an interest in such litigation, and the use of such records by DOJ is deemed by SBA to be relevant and necessary to the litigation, provided, however, that in each case, SBA determines the disclosure of the records to DOJ is a use of the information contained in the records that is compatible with the purpose for which the records were collected: SBA, or any component thereof; any SBA employee in their official capacity; any SBA employee in their individual capacity where DOJ has agreed to represent the employee; or The United States Government, where SBA determines that litigation is likely to affect SBA or any of its components.

n. In a proceeding before a court, or adjudicative body, or a dispute resolution body before which SBA is authorized to appear or before which any of the following is a party to litigation or has an interest in litigation, provided, however, that SBA determines that the use of such records is relevant and necessary to the litigation, and that, in each case, SBA determines that disclosure of the records to a court or other adjudicative body is a use of the information contained in the records that is a compatible purpose for which the records were collected: SBA, or any SBA component; any SBA employee in their official capacity; any SBA employee in their individual capacity where DOJ has agreed to represent the employee; or The United States Government, where SBA determines that litigation is likely to affect SBA or any of its components.

o. To appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when: SBA suspects or has confirmed that the security or confidentiality of information in the system records has been compromised; SBA has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed compromise there is a risk of harm to economic or property interests, identify
