g. Summary of DoD information system or electronic collection. Answers to these questions should be consistent with security guidelines for release of information to the public.

(1) Describe the purpose of this DoD information system or electronic collection and briefly describe the types of personal information about individuals collected in the system.

The National Language Service Corps (NLSC) Records is a web-based system to allow U.S. citizens with language and special skills to self-identify these skills for the purpose of temporary employment on an intermittent work schedule or service opportunities in the DoD or another department or agency of the United States requesting foreign language support determined to be in the national interest of the United States. Forms that mirror the web-based collection are also electronically available for submission in hard copy or by email. The information collected is from individuals to support the mission of the NLSC. The categories of information collected are: full name; other names used; citizenship; home address; e-mail address; home and mobile telephone numbers; verification of 18 years of age; education level; legal status, security clearances, employment information; foreign language(s) spoken, foreign language proficiency levels, origin of foreign language(s) spoken, and English proficiency levels. Upon submission of completed forms, a unique identifier is assigned to each participant in this program.

(2) Briefly describe the privacy risks associated with the PII collected and how these risks are addressed to safeguard privacy.

The security features of the NLSC Records provide a level of protection that meets or exceeds the minimal requirements of DoD Directives 5400.11 and 8500.01E. The concept of identification and authentication "layered protection" is used to keep unauthorized users out of the records. All personnel granted access must participate in a security training and awareness program. This program consists of both initial security training and annual refresher training.

THREATS: Access, storage and transmission of information protected under the Privacy Act of 1974 are subject to threats, including, but not limited to: malware, sniffing, spoofing, and physical assault, as well as various natural disasters and failures which impact either the protected infrastructure or the services upon which the infrastructure depends. All of these imperil, to one extent or another, information availability, integrity, and confidentiality.

DANGERS: Individuals provide information voluntarily. There are no known dangers in providing notice of the collection or allowing an individual to object/consent. Therefore, individuals are given this opportunity at time of data collection via a Privacy Act Statement. Individuals are free to raise objections if new threats are perceived.

UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF RECRUITMENT AND EMPLOYMENT INFORMATION ON THE ABILITY TO MARKET AND HIRE PERSONNEL: Access to personal information is restricted to NLSC personnel who require the records in the performance of their official duties. Access to personal information is further restricted by the use of strong passwords that are changed periodically. Physical entry is restricted by the use of locks, guards, and administrative procedures.

UNAUTHORIZED MODIFICATION OR DESTRUCTION OF INFORMATION FOR RECRUITMENT AND EMPLOYMENT: Periodic assessment of security controls related to modification or destruction of information are performed. Although there can be serious short-term effects for individuals, the effects of modification or deletion of staff recruitment and employment information are generally limited with respect to NLSC capabilities or assets.

DELAY IN RECRUITMENT AND EMPLOYMENT DUE TO THE AVAILABILITY OF THE DATA SUPPORTING THE NLSC: Data is maintained in paper and electronic media. The NLSC is designed to mature the effectiveness of staff recruitment and employment processes. Reasonable delays are tolerable.

h. With whom will the PII be shared through data exchange, both within your DoD Component and outside your Component (e.g., other DoD Components, Federal Agencies)? Indicate all that apply.

i. Do individuals have the opportunity to object to the collection of their PII?

Yes

No

(1) If "Yes," describe method by which individuals can object to the collection of PII.

Individuals provide information voluntarily. Privacy Act Statement is printed on DD Forms 2932, 2933 and 2934; however, failure to provide information may result in non-enrollment in the NLSC, and refusal to grant access to member areas of the NLSC portal.

(2) If "No," state the reason why individuals cannot object.

j. Do individuals have the opportunity to consent to the specific uses of their PII?

Yes

No

(1) If "Yes," describe the method by which individuals can give or withhold their consent.

Individuals provide information voluntarily. Privacy Act Statement is printed on DD Forms 2932, 2933 and 2934; however, failure to provide information may result in non-enrollment in the NLSC, and refusal to grant access to member areas of the NLSC portal. When DoD Components or another department or agency of the United States request temporary short-term foreign language services, members are offered opportunities to use their language skills. Members are advised that their information will be forwarded for consideration for that particular opportunity and that the information provided remains safeguarded within the National Language Service Corps. At any time, members may decline the opportunity to volunteer use of their language skills.

(2) If "No," state the reason why individuals cannot give or withhold their consent.

PRINCIPAL PURPOSE(S): To allow U.S. citizens with language skills to self-identify their skills for the purpose of temporary employment on an intermittent work schedule or service opportunities in support of DoD or another department or agency of the United States. The information will be used to determine applicants' eligibility for NLSC membership and to identify and contact NLSC members.

ROUTINE USE(S): In addition to those disclosures generally permitted under 5 U.S.C. 552a(b) of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, the records or information therein may be disclosed outside the DoD as a routine use pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(3) as follows:
 To another department or agency of the United States in need of temporary short-term foreign language services, where government employees are required or desired.
 The DoD Blanket Routine Uses at <http://dpclo.defense.gov/Privacy/SORNsIndex/BlanketRoutineUses.aspx> may apply.

DISCLOSURE: Voluntary; however, failure to provide information may result in non-enrollment in the NLSC and refusal to grant access to member areas of the NLSC portal.

NOTE:

Sections 1 and 2 above are to be posted to the Component's Web site. Posting of these Sections indicates that the PIA has been reviewed to ensure that appropriate safeguards are in place to protect privacy.

A Component may restrict the publication of Sections 1 and/or 2 if they contain information that would reveal sensitive information or raise security concerns.
