Appendix P. Continuity of Care Study Logic Model

Inputs/Resources	Activities	Outcomes - Short Term	Outcomes - Long Term
Garrett Lee Smith Suicide		GLS State/Tribal Programs
 Garrett Lee Smith Suicide Prevention and Early Intervention Program Grants National Strategy on Suicide Prevention Suicide Prevention Resource Center Federal suicide prevention partners National Suicide Prevention Lifeline National Standards, Training & Practices & Guidelines Subcommittee Surveillance systems 	 Implement processes to support and track identification, referral and follow-up of at-risk youth Identify and develop partnerships with local MH services for assessment and follow-up Provide gatekeeper training Train clinical service providers to assess, manage and treat at-risk youth Screen youth for suicide and substance abuse risk Ensure risk assessment for at-risk youth Develop wrap-around recovery support services Develop partnerships with local MH service providers to refer at-risk youth Develop follow-up monitoring procedures Engage youth and their families in prevention activities Develop follow-up (warm transition) protocols for youth discharged from EDs and hospitals Provide EBI or EB treatment (MH and SA) for at- risk youth Develop cluster response protocols 	 Increase clinical service provider capacity to assessment, manage, and treat at-risk youth Increased youth identified at-risk Increased youth assessed for level of risk Improved identification of suicidal risk factors in risk youth Increased MH and SA treatment service access (follow-up) Increased utilization of safety planning Increased points of contact for at-risk youth Increased capacity to implement referral and follow-up procedures Increased availability of services Increased access of services Increased adherence to treatment 	 Reduction in time from risk assessment to follow-up care Increased adherence to follow-up treatment for at-risk youth Reduction in suicide ideation, planning, and attempts Reduction in self-injury Reduction in substance abuse Reduction in deaths by suicide
 Assessment and Management of Risk Training Curricula 		GLS Campus Programs
 Gatekeeper Trainings Collaboration of youth serving organizations and MH service providers 	 Develop and implement outreach and awareness activities Provide gatekeeper training to campus populations Provide training to assess and manage at-risk students Develop systems of referral and follow-up for students identified as at-risk 	 Increased identifications Increased access or linkage to services Increased adherence to treatment Increased availability of follow-up services Increased help-seeking behaviors of students 	 Reduction in student suicide attempts Reduction in student self-injury Reduction in deaths by suicide