

Components/Offices of Interest

You are applying for the Summer Law Intern Program. If you wish to apply to the Attorney General's Honors Program, review the information entered on the Legal Education and Post-Law School Activities Screens for accuracy, especially dates.

You may indicate your assignment interests by listing up to three components in order of preference. Click here for details, e.g., information and links to the hiring components/offices, eligibility restrictions, sub-office and branch information. If you designate a component that offers further options, such as geographic location, branch, section, or practice area, you will be prompted to enter your preferences later.

The Office of the Solicitor General and the Office of Legal Counsel have eligibility restrictions. Do not apply to these offices unless you will graduate from law school this academic year and have accepted a judicial clerkship starting fall 2016 or later.
