Privacy Act Statement

The Privacy Act of 1974 requires that when we ask you for information about yourself, we state our legal right to do so, tell you why we are asking for it, and how it will be used. We must also tell you what could happen if we do not receive it, and whether your response is voluntary, required to obtain a benefit, or mandatory. Our legal right to ask for the information is Public Law 92-463 and Executive Order (E.O.) 9397. We are asking for the information in order to perform Federal income tax, FBI, and practitioner checks as required of all members and applicants to the Electronic Tax Administration Advisory Committee (ETAAC).

Supplying the information is voluntary and not directly required by law, but facilitates the processing of your application for membership in the ETAAC. Requesting your social security number, which is solicited under authority of E.O. 9397, is also voluntary and no right, benefit, or privilege provided by law will be denied as a result of refusal to disclose it. However, not providing all or any part of the information may limit consideration of your application.
