

FEMA Form 080-0-3a, Fire Prevention and Safety

LOCATION	CURRENT TEXT	REVISED TEXT
p. 2, #7a	7a. If yes, is that person certified to a recognized state or national standard? <input type="radio"/> Yes <input type="radio"/> No	7a. If yes, your department does have a dedicated coordinator, is this person certified to a recognized state or national standard? <input type="radio"/> Yes <input type="radio"/> No p.3, #7b	7b. If no, will you be requesting funds to hire and/or certify a dedicated coordinator in your grant request? <input type="radio"/> Yes <input type="radio"/> No	7b. If no, your department does not have a dedicated coordinator, will you be requesting funds to hire and/or certify a dedicated coordinator in your grant request? <input type="radio"/> Yes <input type="radio"/> No p.4, following #4	New Question	* In the space provided below, please provide a brief synopsis of the proposed project and then identify the specific goals and objectives of your project. p.4, #5	5. In the space provided below, please explain your experience and ability in developing and conducting (i.e., timely and satisfactory project completion) past fire prevention and safety projects. Additionally, please demonstrate the experience and expertise you have in managing the type of project you are proposing: (maximum 2,000 characters, attach additional sheet if necessary)	 5. In the space provided below, please explain your experience and ability in developing and conducting (i.e., timely and satisfactory project completion) past fire prevention and safety projects. Additionally, please demonstrate the experience and expertise you have in managing the type of project you are proposing:
p.4, #6	6. The narrative portion of the application should contain supporting information that allows for evaluation of this project. If you are applying for a grant in the Fire Prevention and Safety Activity, your Narrative Statement must address the evaluation elements as outlined in the FY2011 Program Guidance. Keep in mind that the evaluation of your application will also be based on a clear understanding of your proposal, your ability to meet the objectives of the program, and your probability of successfully delivering your project to the population targeted. You need to	6. The narrative portion of the application should contain supporting information that allows for evaluation of this project. If you are applying for a grant in the Fire Prevention and Safety Activity, your Narrative Statement must address the evaluation elements as outlined in the Funding Opportunity Announcement. Keep in mind that the evaluation of your application will also be based on a clear understanding of your proposal, your ability to meet the objectives of the program, and your probability of successfully delivering your project to the population

	fully explain how the funds will be used to accomplish the goals of your project. To that end, be sure to include descriptions/justification for all budgeted items - items not justified may be disallowed. Your narrative is broken out into 6 separate sections. Each section will address each of the criteria which your application will be evaluated and scored. Images and special characters of formatting (i.e.: quote marks, bold print, bullet points, symbols, etc.) are not allowed.	targeted. You need to fully explain how the funds will be used to accomplish the goals of your project. To that end, be sure to include descriptions/justification for all budgeted items - items not justified may be disallowed. Your narrative is broken out into 5 separate sections which are required, with an optional Additional Comments section. Each section will address each of the criteria on which your application will be evaluated and scored. Images and special characters of formatting (i.e.: quote marks, bold print, bullet points, symbols, etc.) are not allowed.
p.6, following #4	New Question	* In the space provided below, please provide a brief synopsis of the proposed project and then identify the specific goals and objectives of your project.
p.6, #8	8. The narrative portion of the application should contain supporting information that allows for evaluation of this project. If you are applying for a grant in the Fire Prevention and Safety Activity, your Narrative Statement must address the evaluation elements as outlined in the FY2011 Program Guidance. Keep in mind that the evaluation of your application will also be based on a clear understanding of your proposal, your ability to meet the objectives of the program, and your probability of successfully delivering your project to the population targeted. You need to fully explain how the funds will be used to accomplish the goals of your project. To that end, be sure to include descriptions/justification for all budgeted items - items not justified may be disallowed.	8. The narrative portion of the application should contain supporting information that allows for evaluation of this project. If you are applying for a grant in the Fire Prevention and Safety Activity, your Narrative Statement must address the evaluation elements as outlined in the Funding Opportunity Announcement. Keep in mind that the evaluation of your application will also be based on a clear understanding of your proposal, your ability to meet the objectives of the program, and your probability of successfully delivering your project to the population targeted. You need to fully explain how the funds will be used to accomplish the goals of your project. To that end, be sure to include descriptions/justification for all budgeted items - items not justified

	Your narrative is broken out into 6 separate sections. Each section will address each of the criteria which your application will be evaluated and scored. Images and special characters of formatting (i.e.: quote marks, bold print, bullet points, symbols, etc.) are not allowed.	may be disallowed. Your narrative is broken out into 5 separate sections. Each section will address each of the criteria on which your application will be evaluated and scored. Images and special characters of formatting (i.e.: quote marks, bold print, bullet points, symbols, etc.) are not allowed.
p.8, 4 th question	* Number of units: (whole number only)	Number of units, first twelve months (whole number only)
p.8, 5 th question	* Cost per unit: (whole dollar amounts only)	Cost per unit, first twelve months (whole dollar amounts only)
p.8, 6 th question	New Question	Total for First Twelve Months:
p.8, 7 th question	New Question	Number of units second twelve months (whole number only)
p.8, 8 th question	New Question	Cost per unit second twelve months (whole dollar amounts only)
p.8, 9 th question	New Question	Total for Second Twelve Months:
p.10, following #4	Briefly describe method used (required if selected other than "None of the above" above) (maximum 800 characters, attach additional sheet if necessary)	If none of the above, briefly describe the method used to determine target audience:
p.10, following #4	New Question	* Is this project focusing on fire time code adoption and code enforcement or reinstatement of code adoption and code enforcement? <input type="radio"/> Yes <input type="radio"/> No
p.10, following #4	New Question	If Yes, this project is focusing on first time code adoption/code enforcement or reinstatement of code adoption/code enforcement, please explain how.
	*5. In the space provided below, please explain your experience and ability in developing and conducting (i.e., timely and satisfactory project completion) past fire prevention and safety projects. Additionally, please demonstrate the experience and expertise you have in managing the type of project you are proposing:	Question Removed

	(maximum 2,000 characters, attach additional sheet if necessary)
p.10, #6	6. The narrative portion of the application should contain supporting information that allows for evaluation of this project. If you are applying for a grant in the Fire Prevention and Safety Activity, your Narrative Statement must address the evaluation elements as outlined in the FY2011 Program Guidance. Keep in mind that the evaluation of your application will also be based on a clear understanding of your proposal, your ability to meet the objectives of the program, and your probability of successfully delivering your project to the population targeted. You need to fully explain how the funds will be used to accomplish the goals of your project. To that end, be sure to include descriptions/justification for all budgeted items - items not justified may be disallowed. Your narrative is broken out into 6 separate sections. Each section will address each of the criteria which your application will be evaluated and scored. Images and special characters of formatting (i.e.: quote marks, bold print, bullet points, symbols, etc.) are not allowed.	6. The narrative portion of the application should contain supporting information that allows for evaluation of this project. If you are applying for a grant in the Fire Prevention and Safety Activity, your Narrative Statement must address the evaluation elements as outlined in the Funding Opportunity Announcement. Keep in mind that the evaluation of your application will also be based on a clear understanding of your proposal, your ability to meet the objectives of the program, and your probability of successfully delivering your project to the population targeted. You need to fully explain how the funds will be used to accomplish the goals of your project. To that end, be sure to include descriptions/justification for all budgeted items - items not justified may be disallowed. Your narrative is broken out into 5 separate sections which are required, with an optional Additional Comments section. Each section will address each of the criteria which your application will be evaluated and scored. Images and special characters of formatting (i.e.: quote marks, bold print, bullet points, symbols, etc.) are not allowed.
p.12, 4 th question	* Number of units: (whole number only)	Number of units, first twelve months (whole number only)
p.12, 5 th question	* Cost per unit: (whole dollar amounts only)	Cost per unit, first twelve months (whole dollar amounts only)
p.12, 6 th question	New Question	Total for First Twelve Months:
p.12, 7 th question	New Question	Number of units second twelve months (whole number only)
p.12, 8 th question	New Question	Cost per unit second twelve months (whole dollar amounts only)
p.12, 9 th question	New Question	Total for Second Twelve Months:

p.14, following #4	Briefly describe method used (required if selected other than “None of the above” above) (maximum 800 characters, attach additional sheet if necessary)	If none of the above, briefly describe the method used to determine target audience
p.14, #6	6. The narrative portion of the application should contain supporting information that allows for evaluation of this project. If you are applying for a grant in the Fire Prevention and Safety Activity, your Narrative Statement must address the evaluation elements as outlined in the FY2011 Program Guidance. Keep in mind that the evaluation of your application will also be based on a clear understanding of your proposal, your ability to meet the objectives of the program, and your probability of successfully delivering your project to the population targeted. You need to fully explain how the funds will be used to accomplish the goals of your project. To that end, be sure to include descriptions/justification for all budgeted items - items not justified may be disallowed. Your narrative is broken out into 6 separate sections. Each section will address each of the criteria which your application will be evaluated and scored. Images and special characters of formatting (i.e.: quote marks, bold print, bullet points, symbols, etc.) are not allowed.	6. The narrative portion of the application should contain supporting information that allows for evaluation of this project. If you are applying for a grant in the Fire Prevention and Safety Activity, your Narrative Statement must address the evaluation elements as outlined in the Funding Opportunity Announcement. Keep in mind that the evaluation of your application will also be based on a clear understanding of your proposal, your ability to meet the objectives of the program, and your probability of successfully delivering your project to the population targeted. You need to fully explain how the funds will be used to accomplish the goals of your project. To that end, be sure to include descriptions/justification for all budgeted items - items not justified may be disallowed. Your narrative is broken out into 5 separate sections which are required, with an optional Additional Comments section. Each section will address each of the criteria which your application will be evaluated and scored. Images and special characters of formatting (i.e.: quote marks, bold print, bullet points, symbols, etc.) are not allowed.
p.15, 4 th question	* Number of units: (whole number only)	Number of units, first twelve months (whole number only)
p.15, 5 th question	* Cost per unit: (whole dollar amounts only)	Cost per unit, first twelve months (whole dollar amounts only)
p.15, 6 th question	New Question	Total for First Twelve Months:
p.15, 7 th question	New Question	Number of units second twelve months (whole number only)

p.15, 8 th question	New Question	Cost per unit second twelve months (whole dollar amounts only)
p.15, 9 th question	New Question	Total for Second Twelve Months:
p.17, following #4	Briefly describe method used (required if selected other than “None of the above” above) (maximum 800 characters, attach additional sheet if necessary)	If none of the above, briefly describe the method used to determine target audience
p.17, #6	6. The narrative portion of the application should contain supporting information that allows for evaluation of this project. If you are applying for a grant in the Fire Prevention and Safety Activity, your Narrative Statement must address the evaluation elements as outlined in the FY2011 Program Guidance. Keep in mind that the evaluation of your application will also be based on a clear understanding of your proposal, your ability to meet the objectives of the program, and your probability of successfully delivering your project to the population targeted. You need to fully explain how the funds will be used to accomplish the goals of your project. To that end, be sure to include descriptions/justification for all budgeted items - items not justified may be disallowed. Your narrative is broken out into 6 separate sections. Each section will address each of the criteria which your application will be evaluated and scored. Images and special characters of formatting (i.e.: quote marks, bold print, bullet points, symbols, etc.) are not allowed.	6. The narrative portion of the application should contain supporting information that allows for evaluation of this project. If you are applying for a grant in the Fire Prevention and Safety Activity, your Narrative Statement must address the evaluation elements as outlined in the Funding Opportunity Announcement. Keep in mind that the evaluation of your application will also be based on a clear understanding of your proposal, your ability to meet the objectives of the program, and your probability of successfully delivering your project to the population targeted. You need to fully explain how the funds will be used to accomplish the goals of your project. To that end, be sure to include descriptions/justification for all budgeted items - items not justified may be disallowed. Your narrative is broken out into 5 separate sections which are required, with an optional Additional Comments section. Each section will address each of the criteria which your application will be evaluated and scored. Images and special characters of formatting (i.e.: quote marks, bold print, bullet points, symbols, etc.) are not allowed.
p.19, 4 th question	* Number of units: (whole number only)	Number of units, first twelve months (whole number only)
p.19, 5 th question	* Cost per unit: (whole dollar amounts only)	Cost per unit, first twelve months (whole dollar amounts only)

p.19, 6 th question	New Question	Total for First Twelve Months:
p.19, 7 th question	New Question	Number of units second twelve months (whole number only)
p.19, 8 th question	New Question	Cost per unit second twelve months (whole dollar amounts only)
p.19, 9 th question	New Question	Total for Second Twelve Months: