

ENERGY STAR® National Building Competition Final Report Questionnaire – Energy Savings (Teams)

Congratulations on being identified as a potential top finisher in EPA's 2014 ENERGY STAR National Building Competition! EPA is compiling a report to highlight the energy- and water-saving strategies of buildings and teams that most successfully worked off their waste. EPA will distribute this report during the winner announcement, and also refer media and others to it throughout the year for real-world examples of energy and water efficiency in action. Examples of past "wrap up" reports are available at <https://www.energystar.gov/buildings/learn-past-winners>
