OMB Control No. 2127-XXXX
Expiration Date XX/XX/XXXX

This study is being conducted by the Transportation Research Center, Inc., for the United States Department of Transportation's National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) to evaluate different tools that researchers use to measure distraction caused by in-vehicle technologies and portable devices including cell phones.

Participation involves one session of approximately 7-8 hours. Participants will drive a driving simulator and perform in-vehicle tasks like tuning a radio or talking on a cell phone. If selected, you will be invited to come to a laboratory facility located on the Transportation Research Center Proving Grounds in East Liberty, Ohio.

If selected, you will receive $42 per hour for time spent at the data collection facility, as well as mileage reimbursement for travel to and from the data collection site.

NHTSA and TRC will not release any personally identifying information you provide. All information gathered will be kept confidential.

Participation Requirements:

- * Must be 18 - 70 years old
- * Good general health
- * Must have a valid U.S. driver's license with no restrictions other than corrective lenses
- * Drive at least 3000 miles per year
- * Must have experience using a cell phone while driving

If you satisfy these criteria and are available to participate in a daytime session of approximately 7-8 hours sometime during the next 2 months, please click the button below to continue to the contact information entry form.
