Section 1 General Instructions

Before you complete this application, be sure to read booklet RB-17, Survivor Annuities, which explains information you will need to answer many of the questions in this application. Also be sure to read the important notices at the end of the booklet.

Type or print legibly in ink. If you need more space than is provided to answer a question, use Section 10 for this purpose. If you do not know the answer to a question, print "Unknown" in the space provided for the answer.

When entering dates, always use numbers. Also, be sure there is one number in each box. For example, you would enter June 6, 2015, as:

MONTH	DAY	YEAR
0 6	0 6	2 0 1 5

Some items in this application will not apply to you so you will not need to answer them. Based on your answer to a question, you may be told to skip to another item number, or even another section. Follow the instructions that tell you to "Go to" another item. These are designed to save you time and help you move through the application form quickly filling in only necessary information. If no "Go to" instructions are given, answer the next item in order. Do not skip any items unless directed to do so.

If you are completing this application on behalf of someone else, you must answer each question as it applies to the applicant.

Section 2 Identifying Information

Check the information entered by the Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) for Items 1 through 6 for accuracy.

- If the information is correct, go to Section 3.
- If the information is not correct, cross out the incorrect information and enter the correct information above it.
- If the information is missing, fill it in.

I certify that the information I gave the Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) on this application is true to the best of my knowledge. I know that if I make a false or fraudulent statement or withhold information in order to receive benefits from the RRB, I am committing a crime under Federal law which may be punishable by fines, imprisonment, or both. I have received and reviewed the booklets, RB-17, Survivor Annuities and RB-9s, Events That Affect A Survivor Annuity. I understand that I am responsible for reporting events that would affect my annuity as explained in the booklets.

I agree to immediately notify the RRB:

- If I marry;
- If I file for social security benefits based on any person's earnings record;
- If I go to work for a railroad, railroad labor organization or work in any capacity in the railroad industry;
- If I will earn more than the annual earnings exempt amount, and it was not reported on the application;
- If I reported expected earnings and my earnings estimate changes;
- If my address changes;
- If my financial organization or the account number at my financial organization changes;
- If any person for whom I am receiving benefits dies or leaves my care;
- If I am confined in a jail, prison, penal institution, or correctional institution due to a conviction for a criminal offense.

Section 12 How To Return Your Application

Before you return your application, check to make sure that:

- Every question that applies to you has been answered.
- You have entered “unknown” in any answer space for which you were unable to answer a question.
- You have signed and dated the application.
- You have included all the needed proofs listed in the letter you received with this application.

When you received your application, you should also have received a pre-addressed return envelope. If you do not have this envelope, you can use any envelope as long as it is addressed to the RRB office serving your location. No matter which envelope you use, you must put the correct postage on the envelope. Be careful to provide enough postage, because your application and the accompanying forms may weigh more than a standard letter. The U.S. Postal Service will not deliver your application unless it has the correct postage.

Make one final check before you seal the envelope to ensure that the following are enclosed:

- NEEDED PROOFS
- THE APPLICATION FORM ITSELF
- ADDITIONAL FORMS YOU WERE ASKED TO COMPLETE

Note: After the RRB receives your application, a receipt form with information about your claim will be sent to you. When you receive it, you will know that the RRB has received your application and has started the work needed to determine if you are entitled to benefits. If you do not receive the receipt within two weeks after you have filed this application, please contact us so we can find out what is causing the delay.
