

Spreadsheet of Operations Reimbursed

This document is generated by the respondent and is required semi-annually and lists the producers receiving cost-share payments, the total cost of their certification expenses, and the amount paid within the reporting time period. The information can be obtained electronically and will be collected electronically.