

ASPEP-E15-L2
(01-21-16)

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE
Economics and Statistics Administration
U.S. Census Bureau
Washington, DC 20233-0001

PAST DUE NOTICE

Our records indicate that we have not received your 2016 Annual Survey of Public Employment & Payroll.

Enclosed are separate survey letters for specific activities performed by this agency that have not yet responded. Please complete each survey online with its unique User ID and Password. Each survey should be completed for the employees engaged in the activities described in the address label for the pay periods that include March 12, 2016.

If you recently submitted your survey, thank you for your response.

The Census Bureau requests your assistance under the authority of Title 13 United States Code (U.S.C.), Sections 161 and 182. These data are subject to provisions of Title 13 U.S.C., Section 9(b) exempting data that are customarily provided in public records from rules of confidentiality.

Your response is critical to us here at the bureau and ensuring the accuracy of the data. All level of the government and private sector uses this data in everyday business decision and developing modules to illustrate the changes in the economy. Public policy specialists and economists also use these data in econometric models to assess general economic conditions of state and local government financial activities.

For assistance completing the survey, visit us online at <http://census.gov/govs/apes>, email us at ewd.employment.survey@census.gov, or call our customer help line at 1-800-832-2839, Monday through Friday, 7 AM to 5 PM Eastern Time.

Thank you in advance for your time and cooperation, and for helping the U.S. Census Bureau measure America's people, places and our economy. Your response makes a difference.

Sincerely,

Lisa E. Donaldson
Chief, Economic Management Division
U.S. Census Bureau

Enclosures