Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 205(a) and 1631(e) of the Social Security Act, as amended, authorize us to collect this information. We will use the information you provide to determine eligibility for Supplemental Security Income.

Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide all or part of the information may prevent us from making an accurate and timely decision on Supplemental Security Income benefits.

We rarely use the information you supply for any purpose other than what we state above, however, we may use the information for the administration of our programs including sharing information:

1. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from our records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office and Department of Veterans Affairs); and,
2. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to ensure the integrity and improvement of our programs (e.g., to the Bureau of the Census and to private entities under contract with us).

A list of when we may share your information with others, called routine uses, is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notice 60-0103, entitled Supplemental Security Income Record and Special Veterans Benefits. Additional information about this and other system of records notices and our programs is available from our Internet website at www.socialsecurity.gov or at your local Social Security office.

We may also use the information you provide in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State or local government agencies. Information from these matching programs can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for federally funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect payments or delinquent debts under these programs.
