INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE BENEFICIARY RECONTACT REPORT

1. Use black ink or a No. 2 pencil to complete this report.
2. Keep your numbers and X's" inside the boxes.
3. Try to make your numbers look like these.

If you are receiving mother's/father's benefits, answer as follows:

Question 1a. Answer "No" unless you remarried since you began receiving Social Security benefits based on your deceased spouse's Social Security number.

If you have remarried, answer "Yes" and remember to complete 1b and 1c. If the person to whom you are currently married receives Social Security benefits, complete 1d and 1e.

Question 2a. Answer "Yes" if you have a minor child under age 16 or a child disabled since before age 22 in your care. Remember to sign and date the form and return it in the envelope provided.

If you do not have a child in your care, answer 2a "No" and complete 2b. Sign and date the form and return it in the envelope provided.

Privacy Act Statement
Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 202(g) of the Social Security Act as amended, [42 U.S.C. 402(g)] and Title 20 CFR 404.703 and 20 CFR 404.705 authorizes us to ask you to complete this form because you continue to be entitled to mother's/father's or child's benefits as long as you are unmarried and for mother's/father's benefits as long as you have a child entitled to benefits in your care. The information you provide on this form is voluntary. However, failure to provide all or part of the requested information could prevent us from making an accurate and timely decision on your claim.

We rarely use the information you provide on this form for any purpose other than for the reasons explained above. However, we may use it for the administration and integrity of Social Security programs. We may also disclose information to another person or to another agency on accordance with approved routine uses, which include but are not limited to the following:

1. To enable a third party or an agency to assist Social Security in establishing rights to Social Security benefits and/or coverage;
2. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information for Social Security records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office, General Services Administration, National Archives Records Administration, and the Department of Veterans Affairs);
3. To make determinations for eligibility in similar health and income maintenance programs at the Federal, State, and local level; and
4. To facilitate statistical research, audit or investigative activities necessary to assure the integrity of Social Security programs.

We may also use the information you provide in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State or local government agencies. Information from these matching agencies can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federally-funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of payments or delinquent debts under these programs.

A complete list of routine uses for this information is available in our Systems of Records Notice entitled Claims Folder System 60-0089. The notice, additional information regarding this form, and information regarding our system and programs, are available on-line at www.socialsecurity.gov or at any local Social Security office.
