Customer Satisfaction Survey

Collection

The IRS is trying to improve its service to the public. You can help us in this important mission by answering the questions below. This voluntary survey should take less than 5 minutes to complete. Your responses will be kept completely anonymous. If you have any questions about this survey, you may call the Survey Help line at 1-800-521-7177.

We want to ask you very specifically about the contacts you had with a Collection revenue officer-not about all of your contacts with the IRS.

Dear

IRS recently sent you a survey asking for your help with an important research project. If you have already completed the survey, thank you. If you have not already done so, please take a few minutes to fill in your responses.

We are administering a nationwide survey among taxpayers who have had contact with the Internal Revenue Service during the last six months. We want to know your opinions about the revenue officer contact and your collection case worked with the revenue officer. Your responses are critical to the accuracy of this research.

All responses will be anonymous to the Internal Revenue Service and your participation is voluntary. We will group your responses with others and no individual reply can be traced back to any one person or business.

This brief survey should take less than five minutes to complete. Please use the enclosed postage-paid reply envelope to return your completed survey.

The IRS is committed to improving its performance and service to the American public. A first step in this process is to gather reliable information from those who have had contact with IRS, services and employees. Your honest opinions will help bring about this improvement.

Thank you, in advance, for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Dear (Taxpayer)

Reference: Customer Satisfaction Survey

I need your help with an important initiative I am undertaking to improve our service to America's taxpayers. I want to get feedback from taxpayers, like you, contacted during the last six months about your collection case with the IRS.

In a few days, you will receive a questionnaire asking your opinions about your contact with a revenue officer from the Internal Revenue Service. Please direct it to the person who had the most contact with the IRS on this matter. The questionnaire should take less than five minutes to complete. Your answers will be combined with others to give us an evaluation of customer satisfaction with IRS service.

The primary purpose for requesting this information is to help the IRS improve its service to taxpayers. Our authority for requesting the information is 5 USC and 26 USC 7801. Providing information is voluntary. If you do not answer all or part of the survey questions, the IRS may lack information it could use to improve taxpayer service.

I am committed to improving IRS service to every taxpayer. Please help me in this effort by completing and returning the questionnaire as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

Dretha Barham
Director, Operation Support

Do We Have Your Input Yet?

Recently, you received a survey asking questions about your collection case with the IRS.

If you have already completed and returned the survey, please accept our sincere thanks. If not, please take a few minutes to complete and return it today. We want to be sure we have your opinions and suggestions for improving the IRS's service to the public.

If you have not responded to the survey, we will be sending one more copy of the survey in case you did not receive the first one or it has been misplaced. If you have any questions or concerns about this survey, please contact us at email deandra.reinhart@irs.gov.

Dear (Taxpayer)

A few days ago, you received a letter from Internal Revenue Service, Operation Support Director Dretha Barham asking for your help with an important research project. The IRS is committed to improving its performance and service to the American public. As part of this process, we are administering a nationwide survey to gather reliable information from those who have had contact with IRS employees and services.

You have been selected to receive this survey because you were contacted by a revenue officer because of your collection case with the IRS. We want to know your opinions regarding that experience and the service you received from IRS. Your responses are critical to the accuracy of this evaluation of the IRS's service. Please direct it to the person who had the most contact with the IRS on this matter and encourage them to respond.

Your participation is voluntary. IRS will keep your responses anonymous and we will group your responses with others. No identifying information will be associated with your responses.

This brief survey should take less than five minutes to complete. Use the postage-paid reply envelope to return your completed survey.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation. Your honest opinions will help bring about improvements in service for America's taxpayers.

Sincerely,
