4. How many primary potential members (excluding immediate family and household members) are in the group:

5. (a) What is the distance between the group's location and your credit union's nearest service facility<sup>1</sup> to which the group has access (Reference Chapter 2, Section IV.A.1):
  - (b) What is the address of this service facility:

  - (c) Describe the service area<sup>2</sup> primarily served by the above service facility:

6. Is the group in the field of membership of any other credit union? ~~Yes~~ <sup>No</sup> ~~Yes~~ <sup>No</sup> [

~~Yes~~ <sup>No</sup> yes, and the overlapped credit union is not a community credit union or a non-federally insured credit union, please address the following:

- Provide the name and location of the other servicing credit union:

- Include a letter from the overlapped credit union indicating whether it concurs or objects to the overlap. If the overlapped credit union objects or fails to respond, document attempts to resolve the issue:

- Explain how the expansion's beneficial effect in meeting the convenience and needs of the members of the group clearly outweighs any adverse effect on the overlapped credit union:

<sup>1</sup> A service facility is defined as a place where shares are accepted for members' accounts, loan applications are accepted or loans are disbursed.

<sup>2</sup> A federal credit union's service area is the area that can reasonably be served by the service facility accessible to the groups within the field of membership. It will most often coincide with that geographic area primarily served by the service facility.

7. Attach a letter, or equivalent documentation, from the group requesting credit union service indicating:

- that the group wants to be added to the federal credit union's field of membership;
- whether the group presently has other credit union service available;
- the number of persons currently included within the group to be added and the group's location(s);
- the group's proximity to the credit union's nearest service facility; and
- why the formation of a separate credit union for the group is not practical or consistent with safety and soundness standards. The formation of a separate credit union may not be practical if the group lacks sufficient volunteers or resources to support the operation of a credit union or does not meet the economic advisability criteria outlined in Chapter 1 of NCUA's Chartering and Field of Membership Manual.
