Section 1 General Instructions

Before you complete this application, be sure to read Part 1 of booklet RB-1d, Employee Disability Benefits, which explains information you will need to answer many of the questions in this application.

Please read "Important Notices" on page 13 of this application.

Type or print legibly in ink. If you need more space than is provided to answer a question, use Section 9 for this purpose. If you do not know the answer to a question, print "Unknown" in the the space provided for the answer.

When entering dates, always use numbers. Also, be sure there is one number in each box. For example, you would enter June 06, 2007, as:

Month	Day	Year
0 6	0 6	2 0 0 7

Some items in this application will not apply to you so you will not need to answer them. Based on your answer to a question, you may be told to skip to another item number or even another section. Follow the instructions that tell you to "Go to" another item. These are designed to save you time and help you move through the application form quickly, filling in only necessary information. If no "Go to" instructions are given, answer the next item in order. Do NOT skip any items unless directed to do so.

If you are completing this application on behalf of someone else, you must answer each question as it applies to the applicant.

Section 2 Identifying Information

Check the information entered by the Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) for Items 1 through 5 for accuracy.

- If the information is correct, go to Section 3.
- If the information is not correct, enter the correct information.
- If the information is missing, fill it in.

Section 9 Remarks

Remarks

62 This section is to be used for the continuation of answers to other items. Be sure to include the item number at the beginning of the answer you wish to continue. You may also use this space to enter any additional information that you feel may be important to include.

Section 10 Relinquishment Of Rights By Disability Annuity Applicant Only

I authorize the RRB to relinquish any rights I may have to return to work for a railroad employer, which will affect the payment of my own or my spouse's annuity. Based on this authorization, my rights will be relinquished when I reach full retirement age (FRA) or at age 60-FRA if I become entitled to a supplemental annuity or if my spouse becomes entitled to a spouse's annuity. I understand this authorization remains in effect unless my disability annuity terminates before FRA or before a supplemental or spouse's annuity becomes payable. My rights will also be relinquished if I am eligible for a reduced age and service annuity and choose to receive this type of annuity if my disability is denied.

Section 11 Certification

Certification

63 Enter an "X" in the appropriate box:
Will you have a guardian or other representative sign this application on your behalf? ▶

- ☐ Yes ▶ Go to Note and Item 64
- ☐ No ▶ Go to Item 64

NOTE: If answered "Yes," the guardian or other representative of the applicant must sign this application. That person must also complete and return Form AA-5, Application for Substitution Of Payee.

64 I know that if I make a false or fraudulent statement in order to receive benefits from the RRB or if I fail to disclose earnings or report employment of any kind to the RRB, I am committing a crime which is punishable under Federal law. I have received booklets, RB-1d, Employee Disability Benefits, and RB-9, Employee and Spouse Events That Must Be Reported. I understand that I am responsible for reporting any events that would affect my annuity, as explained in these booklets.

I certify that the information I gave to the RRB on this application is true to the best of my knowledge.

I agree to immediately notify the RRB:

- If I work for any employer, railroad or nonrailroad, or perform any self-employment work;
- If my condition improves;
- If I am confined in a jail, prison, penal institution, or correctional facility due to a conviction for a criminal offense;
- If I begin to receive worker's compensation payments (or any other public benefit based on disability), or if the amount of my payment changes;
- If my address changes.

I know that if I am receiving a disability annuity and fail to report work and earnings promptly, I am committing a crime punishable by Federal law that may result in criminal prosecution and/or penalty deductions in my annuity payments.

Section 12 How To Return Your Application

Before you return your application, check to make sure that:

- Every question that applies to you has been answered.
- You have entered "unknown" in any answer space for which you were unable to answer a question.
- You have signed and dated the application.
- You have included all the needed proofs listed in the letter you received with this application.

When you received your application, you should also have received a pre-addressed return envelope. If you do not have this envelope, you can use any envelope as long as it is addressed to the RRB office shown on page 12. No matter which envelope you use, you must put the correct postage on the envelope. Be careful to provide enough postage, because your application and the accompanying forms may weigh more than a standard letter. The U.S. Postal Service will not deliver your application unless it has the correct postage.

Make one final check before you seal the envelope to ensure that the following are enclosed:

- NEEDED PROOFS
- THE APPLICATION FORM ITSELF
- ADDITIONAL FORMS YOU WERE ASKED TO COMPLETE

Note: Make no entries on page 12, which is the receipt for your claim. After the RRB receives your application, they will complete the blanks on the receipt and send it back to you. When it is returned to you, you will know that the RRB has received your application and has started the work needed to determine if you are entitled to benefits. If you do not receive the receipt within a month after you filed this application, please contact us so we can find out what is causing the delay.

Receipt For Your Claim

Employee Applicant's Name	Date Claim Received

Your application for railroad retirement disability benefits has been received and will be processed as quickly as possible. If you change your address or if there is some other change that may affect your claim, you or your representative should report the change. The changes to be reported are listed below. Always give us your claim number when writing or calling about your claim. If you have any questions about your claim, we will be glad to help you.

If you need to personally visit one of our field offices, please call for an appointment. You will not be refused service if you do not have an appointment, but our staff can serve you better when an appointment is made. Most offices are open to the public from 9:00 AM to 3:30 PM, Monday through Friday.

Always Report These Changes to the RRB

- WORK – If you work for any employer, railroad or nonrailroad, or perform any self-employment work.
- CONDITION – If your condition improves.
- WORKER'S COMPENSATION (or any other benefit based on disability) –
  If you begin to receive worker's compensation payments (or any other public benefit based on disability), or if the amount of your payment changes.
- CRIMINAL OFFENSE – If you are confined in a jail, penal institution, or correctional facility due to a conviction for a criminal offense.
- ADDRESS – If your address changes.

How To Report Changes

When a change occurs after you are entitled to disability benefits, you should report the change at once. You can make your reports by telephone, mail, or in person, whichever you prefer.

To report any of the above changes, contact:

Important Notices

PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT AND PRIVACY ACT NOTICES

This notice is given under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 and the Privacy Act of 1974. The Privacy Act requires that the Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) tell you the following whenever we ask you for information.

1) The law which allows us to ask for the information;
2) whether that law requires you to give us that information and what, if anything, might happen to you if you do not give it to us;
3) the reason why the information is requested; and
4) the persons, organizations, and agencies to which we may release the information without your permission.

The RRB's authority for requesting this information is Section 7(b) of the Railroad Retirement Act (RRA) of 1974. Providing us with this information is voluntary on your part. However, if you fail to provide us with the requested information we may be unable to pay you any benefits. The RRB needs this information to determine whether or not you are eligible to receive such benefits and, if so, the amount you are entitled to receive. If your annuity application is approved and we begin to pay you benefits, information that we may request from you in the future will be used to determine whether you are entitled to continue to receive such benefits.

Although the information we request is almost never used for any purpose other than the payment of benefits under the RRA, the RRB does have the authority to release the following information to the indicated individuals, organizations, and/or agencies without your approval:

1) Information may be released to an attorney, the Office of the President, a Congressional office, a labor union or the Department of State's embassy or consular offices if they allege to be representing you at your request.
2) Information may be released to other people who are receiving benefits based on the same railroad retirement account as you are, if the information affects their payments from the RRB.
3) Information may be released to a person who will receive benefits on your behalf if the RRB decided that some medical condition keeps you from receiving your own benefits; such information may also be released in determining whether such a medical condition exists and who is suitable to receive such benefits for you.
4) Information (including medical records) may be released to people or organizations who are working for the RRB.
5) Information may be released to the U.S. Treasury Department or Postal Service to issue payments and to investigate lost, forged, or stolen payments.
6) Information may be released to your last employer to make sure that you are eligible to receive railroad retirement benefits and you continue to receive any available medical benefits, and to any railroad employer (or to its insurance company) to make sure that you can receive any private retirement or insurance benefits which may be offered by the employer.
7) Information may be released to the Social Security Administration, Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, Pension Benefit Guarantee Corporation, Office of Personnel Management, Department of Veterans Affairs, or Federal, State, or local welfare or public aid agencies to determine if you can receive benefits from their organizations and if any previous benefits were paid incorrectly.
8) Information may be released to the Internal Revenue Service or to State and local taxing authorities for figuring your taxes and for use in audits.
9) Your last address and the name of your last employer may be released to the Department of Health and Human Services to be used in the Parent Locator Service.
10) Information may be released to the Government Accountability Office for audits and for collecting overpayments owed to the RRB or Social Security Administration.
11) Information may be released to the U.S. Department of Labor as required by the Federal Coal Mine and Safety Act.
12) Information may be released in certain cases for law enforcement purposes and for court proceedings.
13) Information about the determination and recovery of an overpayment made to you may be released to any other person from whom any portion of the overpayment is being recovered.
14) Your name and address may be released to a Member of Congress to inform you about current or proposed legislation which could affect the railroad retirement system.
15) Information may be released to Professional Standard Review Organizations and State Licensing Boards when services provided by physicians or practitioners suggest unethical or unprofessional conduct.

We estimate this form takes an average of 35 to 60 minutes per response to complete, including the time for reviewing the instructions, getting the needed data, and reviewing the completed form. Federal agencies may not conduct or sponsor, and respondents are not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB number. If you wish, send comments regarding the accuracy of our estimate or any other aspect of this form, including suggestions for reducing completion time, to Chief of Information Resources Management, Railroad Retirement Board, 844 North Rush Street, Chicago, Illinois 60611-2092.

Computer Matching And Privacy Protection Act Notice

The Computer Matching and Privacy Protection Act of 1988 requires the RRB to advise you that information you have provided may be used, without your consent, in automated matching programs. These matching programs are a computer comparison of RRB records with records kept by other Federal, State, or local governmental agencies. Information from these matching programs can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for federally funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of payments or delinquent debts under these programs.
