Electronic Disclosure

Please read the information carefully and electronically sign at the bottom of the page.

By entering information in the screens included in this Census Application process, I state that the information provided in this and accompanying documentation is true and complete. I also understand a false statement made on any part of the application or assessment may be grounds for not hiring the applicant, for terminating him/her after an appointment begins, or other penalties outlined in U.S. Code, Title 18, Section 1001, et seq.

By using this website, I agree to use an electronic signature in lieu of a paper-based signature. I understand that electronic signatures, just like the paper signatures, are legally binding in the United States and in other countries. I further agree not to electronically sign any form without first reading it and ensuring that I have accurately completed the form to the best of my knowledge, thus demonstrating that I am able to access the electronic information contained therein.

Privacy Act and Public Burden Statements

Solicitation of your personal information is authorized by Title 13 U.S.C., Section 23, which authorizes temporary appointments in the U.S. Census Bureau. The collection of your information is also authorized under 5 U.S.C. 301, 3301, 3302, and Executive Orders 9397, 10566.

The purpose of collecting this information is primarily to determine your qualifications for employment and may also be used to identify you to other sources asked to comment on your qualifications, e.g. educational institutions, former employers, and enforcement agencies, or to a court during legal proceedings. Personal information collected includes your Social Security Number (SSN), name, address, date of birth, telephone number, etc.

Disclosure of the information provided to us may be shared with other Census Bureau staff for the work-related purposes identified in this statement as permitted under the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C Section 552a). Disclosure of this information is also subject to the published routine uses as identified in the Privacy Act System of Record Notice OPM/GOVT-5, Recruiting, Examining, and Placement Records.

Furnishing this information is voluntary, however, failure to provide any part or all of the required data will result in you receiving no further consideration for employment.

Public reporting burden for the collection of job application information is estimated to average 15 minutes per response (per job application), including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. This does not include time necessary to complete the required skills assessment questions. Send comments regarding the burden estimate for the job application or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to: Paperwork Project 0607-0139, U.S. Census Bureau, 4600 Silver Hill Road, Room 3K139, Washington, DC 20233-1500. You may E-mail comments to: Paperwork@census.gov; use "Paperwork Project 0607-0139" as the subject.

The OMB No. 0607-0139 confirms the Census Bureau's authority to collect this information.

The U.S. Census Bureau is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Click here to learn more.

DO NOT E-SIGN UNTIL YOU HAVE READ THE ABOVE STATEMENT

- I acknowledge that I have read and understand the statements above.
- I choose to opt out of the electronic Census Application process and will use the manual process instead.

PLEASE NOTE THAT IF YOU CHOOSE TO USE THE MANUAL PROCESS, YOUR JOB APPLICATION WILL TAKE LONGER TO PROCESS THAN IF YOU APPLY ONLINE.

Electronic Disclosure Opt Out

The screenshot shows the 'Electronic Disclosure' page in a web application. The top navigation bar includes icons for Home, Electronic Disclosure, Applicant Personal Data, Application Data, Prior Work Experience, Language Skills, Transportation, Survey, and Sign and Certify. The main content area is titled 'Electronic Disclosure' and contains several paragraphs of text regarding the collection and use of personal information. A 'Message' box is overlaid on the right side of the page, containing the following text: 'If you want to proceed with the on-line process please click OK and change your selection. If you still want to proceed with the manual process, please contact the nearest Census Office below. Location XXXXXXX Telephone # XXX-XXX-XXXX. Location XXXXXXX Telephone # XXX-XXX-XXXX. Location XXXXXXX Telephone # XXX-XXX-XXXX.' Below the message box is an 'OK' button. At the bottom of the page, there is a button labeled 'Opt Out of Electronic Application'.

The screenshot shows a confirmation dialog box with the following text: 'Are you sure you want to opt out of the electronic job application? Using the manual process will extend the time needed to process your application. Click 'Opt Out' to exit the application or 'Return' to change your selection. If you Opt Out your application will be removed and you will not be able to access it in the future.' At the bottom of the dialog box, there are two buttons: 'Opt Out' and 'Return'.

Application Instructions

How do I complete the Online Job Application (Census Employment Inquiry)?

Items marked with an asterisk (*) must be completed before you can finish your job application. You will not be able to certify/submit your application if you do not respond to these items.

You will see the symbol  on some items. Click on the symbol for detailed instructions or information about completing the item.

You will see the symbol  on some items. Click on the symbol to reveal a list of items from which you may choose to enter as your response. You may also start typing your response and a shorter list will appear. You can select your response from the shorter list.

You will see the symbol  on items to allow you to spell check that item. Clicking on the symbol will spell check and provide suggestions for misspelled words. Misspelled words are also underlined in red as they are typed.

As you complete the application, you may receive pop-up messages pointing out potential errors, giving warnings or providing you with additional information about your entry. Please read and follow instructions noted within the pop-up messages.

Depending on your answers to certain application questions, you may be asked to upload documentation to support those answers. Instructions for uploading documentation will be provided at the point in the application where you are required to upload documents.

You will be asked to confirm/certify your entries on the job application once it is complete. In addition, you must also complete a set of skills assessment questions and submit your answers before your application will be submitted.

All applicants will be required to take a Skills Assessment. What is the Assessment like?

The assessment contains questions and items designed to measure knowledge, skills, and abilities, required to perform a variety of census jobs such as:

- Accountability
- Decision Making
- Interpersonal Skills
- Reasoning

Depending on whether you are interested in office and/or field positions and whether you are interested in a supervisory position, you will be asked to respond to questions which ask about your training and experience related to specific job tasks, as well as how you would respond to hypothetical situations.

The amount of time it will take to complete the assessments will vary depending the position(s) you apply for.

Some positions require applicants to be bi-lingual in English and Spanish. If an applicant applies for a position that requires bi-lingual skills takes an assessment in Spanish, then the applicant will be required to take and pass an English Proficiency test to qualify and be considered for the bi-lingual position.

The assessment is physically accessible to people with disabilities. If you need a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, please click the link below for further instructions.

Instructions for Reasonable Accommodations

The decision of granting reasonable accommodations will be made on a case-by-case basis.

I acknowledge that I have read and understand the statements above.

All positions require you to take one or more tests to assess your skills.

All required tests must be taken for your application to be considered. You may take the test(s) now, or take them at a later time. You may also take one or more "sections" of a test, and return to take other sections of the same test at a later time.

If you would like to proceed to the test(s) now, click the "Continue to Assessments" button.
