[STREET ADDRESS]

Dear Adult Resident:

Recently, a Field Interviewer from RTI International came to your home to ask your child to take part in the Evaluation of the Fresh Empire Campaign on Tobacco (EFFECT). Your child could not complete the interview at that time and has been away or was not free each time the interviewer has come back since then. Your help in this study is important—this is why we keep trying to reach you and your child.

A limited number of people were randomly chosen to represent the population of the United States. Your child cannot be replaced. If he or she chooses not to take part, his/her experiences and views—as well as the thousands of people he/she represents—will not be heard.

Your child's answers to the survey questions are combined with the answers of thousands of other people and reported only as overall numbers. To further protect your child's privacy, the survey is set up so that your child records most of his/her own answers—the interviewer never sees or hears them. Also, your child can always refuse to answer any question.

To ensure the accuracy of survey results, we need to interview as many eligible youth aged 12 to 17 as we can. The results of this study will help policy makers and researchers understand media use among today's youth as well as their attitudes and beliefs about tobacco use.

Your child's help is critical to the success of this study, and we are happy to work around your schedule so that you and your child can be included. Please feel free to call me to set up an interview time—the interview can also be done at another location such as a public library.

We know that your time is important. To thank you for your time, your child will be given a $25 token of appreciation at the end of the interview.

Thank you for your time. I hope you and your child will choose to take part in this very important and useful study.

Sincerely,

Data Collection Task Leader

Dear Adult Resident,

Recently, a Field Interviewer from RTI International came to your home to ask your child to take part in the Evaluation of the Fresh Empire Campaign on Tobacco (EFFECT). At the time, you or your child had some concerns about the study.

A limited number of people were randomly chosen to represent the population of the United States. Your child cannot be replaced. If you choose not to take part, your child's experiences and views—as well as the thousands of people your child represents—will not be heard.

Your child's answers to the survey questions are combined with the answers of thousands of other youth and reported only as overall numbers. To further protect privacy, the survey is set up so that your child enters most of their own answers into a laptop computer—the interviewer never sees or hears them. Also, your child can always refuse to answer any question.

The results of this study help policy makers and researchers understand youth awareness of and exposure to campaign ads—including their knowledge, attitudes, and beliefs about tobacco use—so that informed decisions about policies and programs can be made. By taking part in this study, your child will make a direct impact on important tobacco-related education activities.

Your help is critical to the success of this study, and we are happy to work around your schedule so that you can be included.

We know that your and your child's time is important. To thank you for your time, your child will be given a $25 token of appreciation at the end of the interview.

I hope you and your child reconsider and choose to take part in this very important and useful study.

Dear Adult Resident:

Recently, a Field Interviewer from RTI International came to your home to ask your child to take part in the Evaluation of the Fresh Empire Campaign on Tobacco (EFFECT). At the time, you were reluctant to let your child spend the time needed to do the interview.

A limited number of youth were randomly chosen to represent the population of the United States. Your child cannot be replaced. If your child chooses not to take part, their experiences and views—as well as the thousands of people they represent—will not be heard.

As you know, this country is made up of all kinds of people, and so we are interviewing all kinds of people—including busy people like you and your child. If we only interviewed people who have a lot of free time, then active people like you would not be fairly represented. You and your child's participation is critical to the success of this study, and we are happy to work around your schedule so that they can be included.

We know that your time is important. To thank you for your time, your child will be given a $25 token of appreciation at the end of the interview.

We combine your child's answers with the answers of thousands of other youth and report them only as overall numbers. The survey is set up so that your child records most of his/her own answers—the interviewer never sees or hears them. Also, your child can always refuse to answer any question.

The results of this study will help policy makers and researchers understand media use among today's youth as well as their attitudes and beliefs about tobacco use. By taking part in this study, your child will make a direct impact on important education activities to reduce tobacco use.

Thank you for your time. I hope you'll reconsider and choose to let your child take part in this very important study.

Attention: [age] year old [gender] resident

Dear Adult Resident:

Recently, a Field Interviewer from RTI International came to your home and asked your child to take part in the second wave of the Evaluation of the Fresh Empire Campaign on Tobacco (EFFECT). Your child could not complete the interview at that time and has been away or was not free each time the interviewer has come back since then. Your help in this study is important—this is why we keep trying to reach you and your child.

Your child's participation in the first wave of the study was important to the goals of this study. We are contacting you for this second wave so that we can track trends in youths' attitudes, beliefs, and behaviors toward tobacco use. If your child chooses not to take part, his or her experiences and views—as well as the thousands of people he or she represents—will not be heard.

Your child's answers to the survey questions are combined with the answers of thousands of other people and reported only as overall numbers. To further protect your child's privacy, the survey is set up so that he or she records most of their own answers—the interviewer never sees or hears them. Also, your child can always refuse to answer any question.

To ensure the accuracy of survey results, we need to re-interview as many Wave 1 respondents as we can. The results of this study will help policy makers and researchers understand media use among today's youth as well as their attitudes and beliefs about tobacco use.

Your help is critical to the success of this study, and we are happy to work around your schedule so that you and your child can be included. Please feel free to call or email our research team using the below contact information to set up an interview time—the interview can also be done at another location such as a public library.

We know that your time is important. To thank you for your time, your child will be given a $25 token of appreciation at the end of the interview.

Thank you for your time. I hope you and your child will choose to take part in this very important and useful study.
