Application for Health Coverage

Apply faster online

Apply faster online at HealthCare.gov.

Who can use this application?

Anyone who needs health coverage can use this application.

If someone is helping you fill out this application, you may need to complete Appendix C.

What happens next?

Send your complete, signed application to the address on page 4. If you don't have all the information we ask for, sign and submit your application anyway.

We'll follow up with you within 1–2 weeks and you may receive a call from the Marketplace if we need more information. You'll get an eligibility determination notice in the mail after your application is processed.

Filling out this application doesn't mean you have to buy health coverage.

Get help with costs

You need to use a different application to get help with costs. You could qualify for:

- A tax credit that can immediately help pay your premiums for health coverage
- Free or low-cost coverage from Medicaid or the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP)

You may qualify for a free or low-cost program even if you earn as much as $95,400 a year (for a family of 4). Visit HealthCare.gov or call the Marketplace Call Center to learn more.

STEP 4: Your agreement & signature

Is anyone applying for health insurance on this application incarcerated (detained or jailed)? ◯ Yes ◯ No

If yes, tell us the person's name. The name of the incarcerated person is:

◯ Fill in here if this person is facing disposition of charges.

If anyone on this application is eligible for Medicaid:

- I'm giving to the Medicaid agency our rights to pursue and get any money from other health insurance, legal settlements, or other third parties. I'm also giving to the Medicaid agency rights to pursue and get medical support from a spouse or parent.
- Does any child on this application have a parent living outside of the home? ◯ Yes ◯ No
- If yes, I know I'll be asked to cooperate with the agency that collects medical support from an absent parent. If I think that cooperating to collect medical support will harm me or my children, I can tell Medicaid and I may not have to cooperate.

- I'm signing this application under penalty of perjury, which means I've provided true answers to all the questions on this form to the best of my knowledge. I know that I may be subject to penalties under federal law if I intentionally provide false or untrue information.
- I know that I must tell the Health Insurance Marketplace within 30 days if anything changes (and is different than) what I wrote on this application. I can visit HealthCare.gov or call 1-800-318-2596 to report any changes. I understand that a change in my information could affect my eligibility as well as eligibility for member(s) of my household.
- I know that under federal law, discrimination isn't permitted on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, or disability. I can file a complaint of discrimination by visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/office/file.
- I know that information on this form will be used only to determine eligibility for health coverage, help paying for coverage (if requested), and for lawful purposes of the Marketplace and programs that help pay for coverage.

We need this information to check your eligibility for health coverage. We'll check your answers using information in our electronic databases and databases from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Social Security, the Department of Homeland Security, and/or a consumer reporting agency. If the information doesn't match, we may ask you to send us proof.

What should I do if I think my eligibility results are wrong?

If you don't agree with what you qualify for, in many cases, you can ask for an appeal. Please review your eligibility notice to find appeals instructions specific to each person in your household who applies for coverage, including how many days you have to request an appeal. Here's important information to consider when requesting an appeal:

- You can have someone request or participate in your appeal if you want to. That person can be a friend, relative, lawyer, or other individual. Or, you can request and participate in your appeal on your own.
- If you request an appeal, you may be able to keep your eligibility for coverage while your appeal is pending.
- The outcome of an appeal could change the eligibility of other members of your household.

To appeal your Marketplace eligibility results, visit HealthCare.gov/marketplace-appeals/. Or call the Marketplace Call Center at 1-800-318-2596. TTY users should call 1-855-889-4325. You can also mail an appeal request form or your own letter requesting an appeal to Health Insurance Marketplace, Dept. of Health and Human Services, 465 Industrial Blvd., London, KY 40750-0001. You can appeal eligibility for purchasing health coverage through the Marketplace, enrollment periods, tax credits, cost-sharing reductions, Medicaid, and CHIP, if you were denied these. If you qualify for tax credits or cost sharing reductions, you can appeal the amount we determined you're eligible for. Depending on your state, you may be able to appeal through the Marketplace or you may have to request an appeal with the state Medicaid or CHIP agency.

PERSON 1 should sign this application. If you're an authorized representative, you may sign here as long as PERSON 1 signed Appendix C.

Questions about life changes

(You must complete the rest of this application along with this page. Don't submit this page by itself.)

If anyone on this application experienced certain life changes in the past 60 days, fill out the following questions. Certain life changes allow your coverage through the Marketplace to start right away. We also recommend you answer these questions if you're applying after the annual Open Enrollment Period ends and before the next annual Open Enrollment Period starts later in the year.

These questions are optional. If your life circumstances haven't changed, you can leave the answers blank. Members of federally recognized tribes and Alaska Native shareholders can enroll in coverage through the Marketplace any time of the year.

Tell us about changes in your household.
