

Thank you for your participation in last year's college credit card agreement information collection. (See 12 CFR § 1026.57(d); and 15 U.S.C. § 1637(r)) If you are new to this reporting, you can also find the Bureau's previous reports to Congress here: <http://www.consumerfinance.gov/credit-cards/college-agreements/>.

The annual submission of college credit card agreements and accompanying data is due by _____. While the substantive terms of the collection remain unchanged, this year the Bureau allows the attached Excel template to be completed as an alternative to .txt file. Several issuers reported that the .txt file requirement generated confusion, so our hope is that this option will reduce burden for you. Please do not make adjustments to the Excel form.

Please continue to use the field definitions found in the attached Federal Reserve guidance (relevant definitions begin on page 21).

Your submission must include: 1) a completed metadata file, and 2) a PDF of each agreement in effect at any point in 20__.

Please send your submission to CollegeCardAgreements@cfpb.gov.

If you need to send your submission via physical mail, or if you have any questions, please contact us at CollegeCardAgreements@cfpb.gov

Regards,
