

Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

Community Advisory Council

---

Application Form

The Federal Reserve Board's Community Advisory Council (CAC) is an advisory committee providing feedback and advice to the Board on issues affecting consumers and communities. The CAC is composed of a diverse group of experts and representatives of consumer and community development organizations and interests, including from such fields as affordable housing, community and economic development, employment and labor, financial services and technology, small business, and asset and wealth building. CAC members provide a range of perspectives on the economic circumstances and financial services needs of consumers and communities, with a particular focus on the concerns of low- and moderate-income consumers and communities.

If you are interested in being considered for appointment to the Community Advisory Council, please submit the information indicated below. You may provide the application information through the online form below, by email to CCA-CAC@frb.gov or by postal mail to the address listed below.
