

Attachment 13. Field Test Supplement

The current Revision ICR provides the justification for an annual field test and adds capacity (respondents and burden hours) to support the field test.

After approval of the Revision, CDC plans to upload detailed plans through the Change Request mechanism. The Change Request will include

- the screening instrument for field test respondents,
- the survey instrument for field tests respondents, and
- an updated version of Attachment 13 with additional information.