

Filing for or renewing Temporary Protected Status

The process of filing for Temporary Protected Status includes several forms. This website will allow you to complete and file them together.

Application for Temporary Protected Status

Form I-821

You can use this website to re-register for Temporary Protected Status as a national of Nicaragua.

Filing late

If you were unable to file during the initial filing period for Nicaragua, you may qualify to file your initial application late.

Learn more about filing late

Cost

Applying (or re-registering) for Temporary Protected Status costs $135 for anyone over 14 years old. For children under 14, the application costs $50.

Availability

Filing online is not yet available for nationals of other countries. To renew Temporary Protected Status for any other country, complete and submit paper forms.

Application for Employment Authorization

Form I-765

The required information from this form will be submitted as part of the online filing process, and you will not need to complete or file it separately.

As part of filing for Temporary Protected Status, you can also request employment authorization, which temporarily allows you to work legally in the United States.

Cost

Requesting an Employment Authorization Document costs an additional $380 for anyone 14 to 65 years old.

Application for Travel Document

Form I-131

If you have necessary travel planned, you will also need to apply for a travel document. This is a separate application, and adjudicators do not consider requests for travel documents while determining Temporary Protected Status.

This document is important for travel outside of the United States. If you need to file it at a later date, you will need to complete the paper Application for Travel Document.

Cost

Filing an Application for Travel Document costs an additional $360.

Timing and deadlines

You must complete these forms before the end of the re-registration period on XXXX X, 2016.

Once you start the process online, we want to keep your information secure. If you leave your application inactive for more than 30 days, we will delete your data in order to prevent storing personal information indefinitely.

After you submit your re-registration

Biometrics appointment

If we need your photograph, signature, or fingerprints, we will contact you to schedule an appointment at an Application Support Center near you. If we have this information on file, we may not need to schedule a biometrics appointment.

Requests for evidence

If we need more information, we will contact you to ask for other documents or forms to help us make a decision.

Notification

Once your application is reviewed, we will send an approval notice or a letter indicating the reason for your denial. At this point, we will also send your Employment Authorization Document (if you requested one).

Re-registration

Temporary Protected Status for Nicaragua has been extended until [date].

Check back on [date-60] to find out if Temporary Protected Status for Nicaragua has been extended and re-register if need be.

Application for Temporary Protected Status (Form I-821)

AUTHORITIES: Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), as amended, and 8 CFR 244.9 authorize USCIS to collect the information and the associated evidence for this benefit application. INA 264(f) (8 U.S.C. 1304(f)) also provides the Secretary of Homeland Security with the authority to collect Social Security Number (SSN) information.

PURPOSE: The primary purpose for providing the requested information on this form is to determine if you have established eligibility for the Temporary Protected Status for which you are filing. USCIS may also use the information you provide to grant or deny the benefit sought.

DISCLOSURE: The information you provide is voluntary. However, failure to provide the requested information, and any requested evidence, may delay a final decision or result in denial of your request for Temporary Protected Status.

ROUTINE USES: The information you provide on this form may be disclosed to other Federal, state, local, and foreign government agencies and authorized organizations in accordance with approved routine uses, as described in the associated published system of records notices, DHS-USCIS-007 - Benefits Information System, DHS/USCIS-001 - Alien File, Index, and National File Tracking System of Records and DHS/USCIS-015 - Electronic Immigration System-2 Account and Case Management System of Records, which can be found at www.dhs.gov/privacy. USCIS may also make the information available, as appropriate, for law enforcement purposes or in the interest of national security.

Application for Employment Authorization (Form I-765)

AUTHORITIES: The information requested on this form, and the associated evidence, is collected under the Immigration and Nationality Act, section 101, et seq.

PURPOSE: The primary purpose for providing the requested information on this form is to determine eligibility for certain aliens who are temporarily in the United States requesting an Employment Authorization Document (EAD).

DISCLOSURE: The information you provide is voluntary. However, failure to provide the requested information, and any requested evidence, may delay a final decision or result in the denial of your benefit request.

ROUTINE USES: The information you provide on this benefit application may be shared with other federal, state, local, and foreign government agencies and authorized organizations in accordance with approved routine uses, as described in the associated published system of records notices [DHS-USCIS-001—Alien File, Index, and National File Tracking System; DHS-USCIS-007—Benefit Information System; and DHS/USCIS-010—Asylum Information and Pre-Screening, which can be found at www.dhs.gov/privacy]. The information may also be made available, as appropriate for law enforcement purposes or in the interest of national security.

Application for Travel Document (Form I-131)

AUTHORITIES: The information requested on this form, and the associated evidence, is collected under the Immigration and Nationality Act, section 101, et seq.

PURPOSE: The primary purpose for providing the requested information on this form is to determine if you have established eligibility for the immigration benefit for which you are filing. The information you provide will be used to grant or deny the benefit sought.

DISCLOSURE: The information you provide is voluntary. However, failure to provide the requested information, and any requested evidence, may delay a final decision or result in denial of your form.

ROUTINE USES: The information you provide on this form may be shared with other Federal, State, local, and foreign government agencies and authorized organizations following approved routine uses described in the associated published system of records notices [DHS-USCIS-007—Benefits Information System and DHS-USCIS-001—Alien File, Index, and National File Tracking System of Records, which can be found at www.dhs.gov/privacy]. The information may also be made available, as appropriate, for law enforcement purposes or in the interest of national security.
