Item Numbers 1. - 4. Aggregate Capital Investment and Job Creation. Provide the Center's Operations

Item Numbers 1.a. - 1.d. Aggregate Capital Investment and Job Creation. Enter the following information about the regional center operations: the aggregate amount of EB-5 investor capital invested through the regional center; the aggregate amount of non-EB-5 capital invested through the regional center; the aggregate number of new direct, indirect, and/or induced jobs created by EB-5 investors through the regional center; and the aggregate number of jobs maintained for EB-5 purposes through investment into "troubled business" associated with regional center activities (if applicable).

following information, in aggregate, from all sponsored projects:

1. EB-5 investor capital invested through the regional center;
2. Non-EB-5 capital invested through the regional center;
3. New direct, indirect, and/or induced jobs created through the regional center; and
4. Jobs maintained for EB-5 purposes through the regional center by investment into "troubled businesses" (if applicable).

NOTE: When reporting job creation, the numbers should reflect the aggregate direct, indirect, and/or induced jobs that have actually been created by all sponsored projects to date, regardless of whether any petitioners have independently claimed credit for such jobs on any Form I-526, Immigrant Petition by Alien Entrepreneur or Form I-829, Petition by Entrepreneur to Remove Conditions. This calculation should employ the same economic methodology identified when the project was first submitted to USCIS with Form I-924, Application For Regional Designation Center Under the Immigrant Investor Program, with an exemplar project or Form I-526 petition. In cases where a current project is different than what was contemplated in Form I-924 or Form I-526, the job creation calculation should employ the intended methodology for related Form I-829.

Where utilized job creation methodologies use inputs of expenditures, revenues and/or direct jobs, the reported aggregate jobs created should be the result of those job creating inputs to date. Include a description which explains the prorated inputs and job creation calculations in relation to the total jobs expected to result from the project.

If there is more than one project sponsored through a regional center or if a particular project's jobs were not all created during the Federal fiscal year covered by the form, use the space provided in

Item Numbers 2.a. - 3.f. Industries and Resulting Aggregate Capital Investment and Job Creation. Identify each industry that has been the focus of EB-5 capital investments sponsored through the regional center, and the resulting aggregate capital investment and job creation. Include the name of the industry, the North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) code for the industry, the aggregate number of direct and indirect jobs created, and the aggregate number of jobs maintained for EB-5 purposes through investment into “troubled businesses” associated with regional center activities (if applicable).

Part 6. Information About New Commercial Enterprise

Item Number 1. Name of New Commercial Enterprise. Enter the name of the new commercial enterprise and the industry category title.

Part 11. Additional Information to report the number of jobs created by Federal fiscal year for each sponsored project.

Item Numbers 5. - 16. Industries and Resulting Aggregate Capital Investment and Job Creation.

Provide the following information about the regional center operations:

1. Each industry that has been the focus of EB-5 capital investments sponsored through the regional center;
2. North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) code for each industry;
3. Aggregate amount of EB-5 capital investment for each industry;
4. Aggregate amount of non-EB-5 capital investment for each industry;
5. Aggregate number of direct, indirect, and/or induced jobs created for each industry; and
6. Aggregate number of jobs maintained for EB-5 purposes through investment into “troubled businesses” for each industry (if applicable).

Part 6. Information About the New Commercial Enterprise

For each new commercial enterprise associated with the regional center that has received EB-5 investor capital, provide the following information.

Item Number 1. Name of the New Commercial Enterprise. Provide the name of the new commercial enterprise and the industry category title.

Item Number 2. New Commercial Enterprise Federal Employer Identification Number. Provide the Federal Employer Identification Number of the new commercial enterprise.

Item Numbers 3.a. - 3.f. New Commercial Enterprise Mailing Address. Provide the mailing address of the new commercial enterprise. If the mailing address of the new commercial enterprise

Item Numbers 2.a. - 2.f. Mailing Address.

Enter the mailing address of the new commercial enterprise.

Item Numbers 3.a. - 3.g. Other Information.

Enter the following information about the new commercial enterprise (if the regional center oversees more than one new commercial enterprise, provide the information below for each new commercial enterprise in the space provided in Part 11. Additional Information). Provide the name of the industry; the NAICS code for the Industry; aggregate EB-5 capital investment; the aggregate amount of non-EB-5 capital investment; the aggregate number of direct, indirect, and/or induced jobs created by EB-5 investors; the aggregate number of jobs that have been maintained for EB-5 purposes through investments into “troubled businesses” associated with regional center activities (if applicable); and confirm that the new commercial enterprise will serve as a vehicle for investment into job creating business entities that have or will create or maintain jobs for EB-5 purposes.

Item Numbers 4.a. - 6.d. Job Creating Entity.

If any new commercial enterprise serves as a vehicle for investment into other business entities that have or will create or maintain jobs for EB-5 purposes, provide the names and address of the new commercial enterprise, the amount of EB-5 and non-EB-5 investment, and the number of jobs created or is different from its physical address, provide the physical address of the new commercial enterprise in the space provided in Part 11. Additional Information.

Item Numbers 4. - 10. Other Information.

Provide the following information about the new commercial enterprise. If the regional center oversees more than one new commercial enterprise, provide the requested information for each new commercial enterprise:

1. Industries that have been the focus of EB-5 capital investment;
2. NAICS code for each industry;
3. Aggregate amount of EB-5 capital investment;
4. Aggregate amount of non-EB-5 capital investment;
5. Aggregate number of direct, indirect, and/or induced jobs created;
6. Aggregate number of jobs that have been maintained for EB-5 purposes through investments into “troubled businesses” (if applicable); and
7. Indicate whether the new commercial enterprise will serve as a vehicle for investment into job creating entities that have or will create or maintain jobs for EB-5 purposes.

Item Numbers 11. - 18. Job Creating Entity. If any new commercial enterprise serves as a vehicle for investment into other job creating entities, provide the following information for each job creating entity:

1. Name of each job creating entity;
2. Federal Employer Identification Number of each job creating entity;
3. Mailing address and physical address of each job creating entity;
4. Industries of each job creating entity;

maintained by each actual job-creating entity. If the new commercial enterprise has made capital available to more than one job creating enterprise, provide this information for each job creating enterprise in the space provided in Part 11. Additional Information.

Part 7. Petitions Filed by EB-5 Investors

Item Number 1.a. - 1.c. Form I-526, Immigrant Petition by Alien Entrepreneur.

Provide the total number of approved, denied, and revoked Form I-526 petitions filed by EB-5 investors for capital investments sponsored through the regional center.

Item Number 2.a. - 2.b. For I-829, Petition by Entrepreneur to Remove Conditions.

Provide the total number of approved and

5. Aggregate amount of EB-5 capital investment for each job creating entity;
6. Aggregate amount of non-EB-5 capital investment for each job creating entity;
7. Aggregate number of jobs created for each job creating entity; and
8. Aggregate number of jobs maintained for EB-5 purposes through investment into “troubled businesses” for each job creating entity (if applicable).

NOTE: When providing the requested job creation data, please refer to NOTE in Part 5. in the Specific Instructions section for reporting job creation contained in the note to Part 5. above. Additionally, if the reported jobs were not all created during the Federal fiscal year covered by the form, use the space provided in Part 11. Additional Information to report the number of jobs created by Federal fiscal year.

Part 7. Petitions Filed by EB-5 Investors

Item Numbers 1. - 2. Immigrant Petition by Alien Entrepreneur (Form I-526). Provide the name of each new commercial enterprise associated with the regional center that has received EB-5 investment capital and the total number of approved, denied, and revoked Form I-526 petitions filed by EB-5 investors for each new commercial enterprise. [page 6]	What Is the Filing Fee?

What Is the Filing Fee?

There is no filing fee for Form I-924A.

The filing fee for Form I-924A is $3,035.

USCIS will reject your Form I-924A if you submit the incorrect fee.

NOTE: The filing fee is not refundable, regardless of any action USCIS takes on this form. DO NOT MAIL CASH. You must submit all fees in the exact amounts.

Use the following guidelines when you prepare your check or money order for the Form I-924A filing fee:

1. The check or money order must be drawn on a bank or other financial institution located in the United States and must be payable in U.S. currency; and
2. Make the check or money order payable to U.S. Department of Homeland Security.

NOTE: Spell out U.S. Department of Homeland Security; do not use the initials “USDHS” or “DHS.”

Notice to Those Making Payment by Check. If you send us a check, USCIS will convert it into an electronic funds transfer (EFT). This means we will copy your check and use the account information on it to electronically debit your account for the amount of the check. The debit from your account will usually take 24 hours and your bank will show it on your regular account statement.

You will not receive your original check back. We will destroy your original check, but will keep a copy of it. If USCIS cannot process the EFT for technical reasons, you authorize us to process the copy in place of your original check. If USCIS cannot complete the EFT because of insufficient funds, we may try to make the transfer two additional times.

How To Check If the Fees Are Correct

Form I-924A’s filing fee is current as of the edition

	date in the lower left corner of this page. However, because USCIS fees change periodically, you can verify that the fees are correct by following one of the steps below. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Visit the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov, select “FORMS,” and check the appropriate fee; or 2. Call the USCIS National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283 and ask for fee information. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) call: 1-800-767-1833. USCIS will reject your Form I-924A if you submit the incorrect fee or if you attach payment for more than what you are required to pay. In such a case, USCIS will return any filing fees you submitted with your Form I-924A. Form I-924A is not eligible for a fee waiver under 8 CFR 103.7(c).

Initial Processing. Once USCIS accepts your supplement, we will check it for completeness. If you do not completely fill out this supplement or if you otherwise fail to demonstrate that the regional center is continuing to promote economic growth, improved regional productivity, job creation, or increased domestic capital investment in the approved geographic area, USCIS will issue a notice of intent to terminate the participation of the regional center in the Immigrant Investor Program.

Requests for More Information. We may request that you provide more information or evidence to support your supplement. We may also request that you provide the originals of any copies you submit. USCIS will return any requested originals when they are no longer needed.

Requests for Interview. We may request that you appear at a USCIS office for an interview based on your supplement. At the time of any interview or other appearance at a USCIS office, we may require that you provide your fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature to verify your identity and/or update background and security checks.

Decision. The decision on Form I-924A involves a determination of whether you have established eligibility for the immigration benefit you are seeking. USCIS will notify you of the decision in writing.

Processing Information

Form I-924A Processing. Once USCIS accepts your form, we will check it for completeness. If you do not completely fill out Form I-924A, USCIS may reject your form. If USCIS determines that the regional center no longer serves the purpose of promoting economic growth, improved regional productivity, job creation, or increased domestic capital investment in the approved geographic area, USCIS will issue a notice of intent to terminate the participation of the regional center in the Immigrant Investor Program. If the regional center fails to overcome the grounds alleged in the notice of intent to terminate, USCIS will terminate the approval and designation of the regional center.

Requests for More Information. We may request that you provide more information or evidence to support your form. We may also request that you provide the originals of any copies you submit. If USCIS requests an original document from you, it will be returned to you after USCIS determines it no longer needs your original.

NOTE: If you submit original documents when not required or requested by USCIS, your original documents may be immediately destroyed upon receipt.

Requests for Interview. We may request that you, as the authorized individual, appear at a USCIS office for an interview based on your form. At the time of any interview or other appearance at a USCIS office, we may require that you, as the authorized individual, provide your fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature to verify your identity and/or update background and security checks.

Decision. The decision on Form I-924A involves a

	determination of whether eligibility for the continued designation you are seeking. USCIS will notify you of any adverse decision in writing.
