ATTACHMENT E ZIKA Scenarios Men

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 60 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to CDC/ATSDR Information Collection Review Office; 1600 Clifton Road NE, MS D-74, Atlanta, GA 30333, ATTN: PRA (0920-1050)

1.	You are concerned about Zika and would like to find more information on how to prevent mosquito bites. Using this site, what can you find?
2.	What other steps can you take to protect yourself from Zika?
3.	How is Zika spread?
4.	You've heard on the news that Zika has been spreading. How would you find out where Zika is?
5.	You recently traveled to an area with Zika. You and your wife are thinking about starting a family. Are there any precautions you should take?
6.	Is there a vaccine for Zika?

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 60 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to CDC/ATSDR Information Collection Review Office; 1600 Clifton Road NE, MS D-74, Atlanta, GA 30333, ATTN: PRA (0920-1050)

7.	You have two young children and are worried about Zika with all of the mosquitos during summer. Can infants and children be infected with Zika?
8.	What should you do if you think you have Zika?
9.	Your partner is pregnant, is it safe for you to take a vacation together to the Bahamas?
10.	You traveled to an area with Zika and don't know if you have been infected or not. Your wife is pregnant. How long do you need to wear a condom?
11.	If you have Zika, how can you protect others from getting sick?

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 60 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to CDC/ATSDR Information Collection Review Office; 1600 Clifton Road NE, MS D-74, Atlanta, GA 30333, ATTN: PRA (0920-1050)

12. Your sister is expecting a baby. You are concerned about Zika and would like to learn about what possible birth defects that could happen if your sister gets Zika.