About the Center for Cancer Research (CCR)

CCR comprises nearly 250 teams conducting basic, translational, and clinical research in the NCI intramural program—an environment supporting innovative science aimed at improving human health. We are working on the cutting-edge, from the development of groundbreaking immunotherapy approaches to the creation of the human papilloma virus (HPV) vaccine, to solve the most pressing problems in the field through basic, translational and clinical cancer research to create the cancer medicines of tomorrow. CCR's clinical program is housed at the NIH Clinical Center—the world's largest hospital dedicated to clinical research. For more information about CCR and its programs, visit ccr.cancer.gov.

Collection of this information is authorized by The Public Health Service Act, Section 411 (42 USC 285a). Rights of participants are protected by The Privacy Act of 1974. Participation is voluntary, and there are no penalties for not participating or withdrawing at any time. Refusal to participate will not affect your benefits in any way. The information collected will be kept private to the extent provided by law. Names and other identifiers will not appear in any report. Information provided will be combined for all participants and reported as summaries. You are being contacted on-line to complete this instrument so that NCI can evaluate its advertisement strategies and make necessary improvements to the application website.

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average five minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to: NIH, Project Clearance Branch, 6705 Rockledge Drive, MSC 7974, Bethesda, MD 20892-7974, ATTN: PRA (0925-0046).
