Form 972 (Rev. 11-2014)

General Instructions

Purpose of form. Form 972 is used by a shareholder who agrees to report a consent dividend as taxable income in the form of a dividend on the shareholder's own tax return even though the shareholder receives no actual cash distribution of the consented amounts. A dividend is a consent dividend only if it would have been included in the shareholder's gross income if it was actually paid. If the shareholder agrees to treat the dividend as taxable, the corporation may be able to claim a consent dividend deduction on its income tax return. Also, the shareholder increases its basis in the stock of that corporation in the amount of the consent dividend for which the shareholder is taxed.

Who may file. A shareholder who agrees to treat the consent dividend as a taxable dividend must complete and send Form 972 to the corporation that will claim the consent dividend as a deduction.

When and where to file. Send the completed Form 972 to the corporation by the due date of the corporation's tax return for the tax year the corporation will claim the consent dividends as a deduction.

The corporation must attach Form 973, Corporation Claim for Deduction for Consent Dividends, and a copy of each completed Form 972 to its income tax return.

Note. The shareholder must report the consent dividend as a taxable dividend in the same tax year the corporation will claim the consent dividend deduction. For example, the corporation has a fiscal tax year that begins on July 1, 2014, and ends on June 30, 2015. In November 2014, a calendar year shareholder agrees to a consent dividend and sends a completed Form 972 to the corporation. The corporation claims the consent dividend deduction on its tax return for the fiscal year ending on June 30, 2015. The shareholder reports the consent dividend as a taxable dividend on its tax return filed for the calendar year ending on December 31, 2015. doesn't Identifying number. Individuals enter their social security number. All others enter their employer identification number.

Address. Include the room, suite, or other unit number after the street address. If the Post Office does not deliver mail to the street address and the shareholder has a P.O. box, show the box number instead of the street address.

Signature. Form 972 must be signed by the shareholder. If the shareholder is a partnership, one of the partners must sign. If the shareholder is an estate or trust, the fiduciary or officer representing the estate or trust must sign. For a corporate shareholder, the president, vice president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, chief accounting officer, or other authorized officer (such as tax officer) must sign the consent.

The shareholder's attorney or agent may sign this consent if he or she is specifically authorized by a power of attorney which, if not previously filed, must accompany Form 972.
