Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver?	What Should I Do Once USCIS Approves My Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver? 1. If you are in removal proceedings, obtain a termination or dismissal order from EOIR. If you are in removal proceedings and USCIS approves your Form I-601A, it is important that you seek an order from EOIR that terminates or dismisses your removal proceedings before you leave the United States. Leaving the United States before your removal proceedings are terminated or dismissed may delay processing of your immigrant visa based on another ground of inadmissibility. Visit the USCIS Web site at www.uscis.gov/provisionalwaiver for information about how to seek termination or dismissal of your removal proceedings before you depart the United States. 2. Depart the United States to attend your immigrant visa interview. You must depart the United States to attend your immigrant visa interview for the provisional unlawful presence waiver to become fully effective. If you fail to do this, your provisional unlawful presence waiver will not take effect and the approval may no longer be valid.	What Should I Do Once USCIS Approves My Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver? 1. If you are in removal proceedings, obtain a termination or dismissal order from EOIR. If you are in removal proceedings and USCIS approves your Form I-601A, it is important that you seek an order from EOIR that terminates or dismisses your removal proceedings before you leave the United States. Leaving the United States before your removal proceedings are terminated or dismissed may delay processing of your immigrant visa based on another ground of inadmissibility. Leaving the United States before your removal proceedings are terminated or dismissed may also result in the automatic revocation of your approved provisional unlawful presence waiver. Visit the USCIS Web site at www.uscis.gov/provisionalwaiver for information about how to seek termination or dismissal of your removal proceedings before you depart the United States. [No change]
Page 3, How Long Is My Approved Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver Valid and When Can USCIS Revoke It?	[Page 3] How Long Is My Approved Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver Valid and When Can USCIS Revoke It? 1. Validity of an approved waiver. An approved provisional unlawful presence waiver takes effect once you depart the United States, you appear for your immigrant visa interview, and the DOS consular officer determines you are otherwise admissible to the United States and eligible for an immigrant visa. Once your waiver takes effect, it is valid indefinitely for the period of unlawful presence that was waived.	[Page 3] How Long Is My Approved Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver Valid and When Can USCIS Revoke It? [No change]

	2. Revocation of an approved waiver. An approved provisional unlawful presence waiver is automatically revoked and no longer valid if: A. You enter or attempt to reenter the United States without inspection and admission or parole: (1) While your application for a provisional unlawful presence waiver is pending with USCIS; (2) After your provisional unlawful presence waiver is approved; or (3) Before your immigrant visa is issued; B. The DOS consular officer determines at the immigrant visa interview that you are ineligible to receive the immigrant visa because you are inadmissible on grounds other than the 3-year or 10-year unlawful presence bars; C. The immediate relative petition approval associated with the provisional unlawful presence waiver is at any time revoked, withdrawn, or rendered invalid, but not otherwise reinstated for humanitarian reasons or converted to a widow or widower petition (Form I-360); or D. DOS terminates your immigrant visa registration in accordance with INA section 203(g).	C. The immigrant visa petition that was the basis for the provisional unlawful presence waiver is at any time revoked, withdrawn, or rendered invalid, but not otherwise reinstated for humanitarian reasons or converted to a widow or widower petition (Form I-360); D. DOS terminates your immigrant visa registration in accordance with INA section 203(g), and it has not been reinstated; or E. The DOS consular officer determines that you are ineligible for the immigrant visa.
Page 3, What Happens If My Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver is Denied or Revoked or If I Withdraw My Pending Application?	[Page 3] What Happens If My Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver is Denied or Revoked or If I Withdraw My Pending Application? If your provisional unlawful presence waiver is denied or is approved, but subsequently revoked, or you withdraw your pending application:	[Page 3] [No change] [Page 4]

	1. You may depart the United States to attend your immigrant visa interview and apply for a waiver abroad. At your immigrant visa interview at the U.S. Embassy or U.S. Consulate abroad, DOS will make an admissibility determination. If DOS determines you are inadmissible, based on unlawful presence or other grounds, you may file Form I-601, Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility, with USCIS from abroad, if a waiver is available to you. 2. You may file a new Form I-601A along with the required filing fee and biometric services fee. You must still meet all the eligibility requirements for the provisional unlawful presence waiver at the time of filing, including requirements to be physically present in the United States and to appear for your biometric services appointment at a USCIS Application Support Center (ASC). 3. USCIS may initiate removal proceedings. Denial of your provisional unlawful presence application does not automatically trigger initiation of removal proceedings. USCIS will follow its current guidelines for initiation of removal proceedings. For more information on USCIS guidance for referral of cases and issuance of Notices to Appear (NTAs) in cases involving inadmissible and removable aliens, visit the USCIS Web site at www.uscis.gov/provisionalwaiver.	[no change]
Pages 3-4, How Does a Pending or Approved Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver Affect My Immigration Status?	[Page 3] How Does a Pending or Approved Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver Affect My Immigration Status? The filing or approval of an application for a provisional unlawful presence waiver does not affect your current immigration status in the United States. A pending or approved provisional unlawful presence waiver: 1. Does NOT provide interim benefits. Filing this application does not give you interim benefits such as employment authorization or eligibility to apply for	[Page 4] [No change]

advance parole to return to the United States. A pending or approved waiver also does not give you any interim benefits while your immigrant visa application is pending with DOS;

2. Does NOT provide lawful status. If you are not otherwise maintaining lawful status in the United States, the filing or approval of this waiver application alone does not give you lawful immigration status in the United States;

3. Does NOT stop the accrual of unlawful presence or provide protection from removal. A pending or approved waiver will not prevent the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) from initiating removal proceedings against you or actually removing you from the United States. A pending or approved waiver also does not protect you from accruing additional unlawful presence while still in the United States;

4. Does NOT remove the requirement to depart the United States and seek an immigrant visa. If your provisional unlawful presence waiver is approved, you must still depart the United States to process your immigrant visa at a U.S. Embassy or U.S. Consulate abroad. The approval of a provisional unlawful presence waiver does not make you eligible for adjustment of status in the United States. For more information on adjustment of status, visit the USCIS Web site at www.uscis.gov/greencard.

5. Does NOT guarantee immigrant visa issuance. A DOS consular officer will determine if you are eligible for an immigrant visa. There are many reasons why individuals are ineligible for an immigrant visa, and this provisional unlawful presence waiver only provisionally covers one ground of inadmissibility resulting from unlawful presence in the United States. For more information about immigrant visa requirements, consult the DOS Web site at www.immigrantvisas.state.gov; and

	6. Does NOT guarantee admission to the United States. Having an approved waiver or immigrant visa does not guarantee your admission to the United States. A U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officer will make a determination when you apply for admission at a U.S. Port-of-Entry.
Page 4, What Happens If I Depart the United States While My Form I-601A Is Pending or If I Enter or Attempt to Reenter Without Inspection and Admission or Parole?	[Page 4] What Happens If I Depart the United States While My Form I-601A Is Pending or If I Enter or Attempt to Reenter Without Inspection and Admission or Parole? All applicants for a provisional unlawful presence waiver must be in the United States at the time of filing Form I-601A and appear for biometrics capture at a USCIS ASC. USCIS may consider your case abandoned and deny it pursuant to 8 CFR 103.2(b)(13) if you do not appear for biometrics capture, if you do not respond to a request for evidence (RFE), or if you do not appear for an interview when requested by USCIS. If you depart the United States, and at any time before or after filing Form I-601A, enter or attempt to reenter the United States without inspection and admission or parole, you may be placed in removal proceedings, may be subject to additional grounds of inadmissibility that would render you ineligible for a provisional unlawful presence waiver, and any approval of Form I-601A would be automatically revoked.	[Page 5] [No change]
Pages 4-5, General Instructions	[Page 4] General Instructions USCIS provides forms free of charge through the USCIS Web site. In order to view, print, or fill out our forms, you should use the latest version of Adobe Reader, which you can download for free at http://get.adobe.com/reader/. If you do not have Internet access, you may call the USCIS National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283 and ask that we mail a form to you. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) call: 1-800-767-1833.	[Page 5] General Instructions [no change]

Signature. Each application must be properly signed and filed. For all signatures on this application, USCIS will not accept a stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature. If you are under 14 years of age, your parent or legal guardian may sign the application on your behalf. A legal guardian may also sign for a mentally incompetent person.

Filing Fee. Each application must be accompanied by the appropriate filing fee and biometric services fee (if applicable). (See the What Is the Filing Fee section of these Instructions.)

Evidence. At the time of filing, you must submit all evidence and supporting documentation listed in the What Evidence Should I Submit With This Application section of these Instructions.

Biometric Services Appointment. USCIS may require that you appear for an interview or provide fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature at any time to verify your identity, obtain additional information, and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), before making a decision on your application. After USCIS receives your application and ensures it is complete, we will inform you in writing if you need to attend a biometric services appointment. If an appointment is necessary, the notice will provide you the location of your local or designated USCIS Application Support Center (ASC) and the date and time of your appointment. If you fail to attend your biometric services appointment, USCIS may deny your application.

Immigrant Visa Processing

DOS processes immigrant visas for individuals seeking to immigrate permanently to the United States from abroad. USCIS sends the approved immediate relative petition to the DOS National Visa Center (NVC) for consular processing of the immigrant visa if Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, or Form I-360, Petition for Amerasian, Widow(er) or Special Immigrant, indicates that the beneficiary will seek an immigrant visa through the consular process abroad. Once the NVC receives this approved petition, the NVC sends the beneficiary instructions on how to initiate the immigrant visa application process and pay the immigrant visa application processing fee.

You must have already paid the DOS immigrant visa processing application fee and must provide USCIS with a copy of your DOS issued immigrant visa fee receipt when you submit your provisional unlawful presence waiver application. You must submit the DOS immigrant visa application fee receipt for the NVC case associated with the approved immigrant visa petition classifying you as an immediate relative. Contact the NVC if you need another copy of your DOS-issued immigrant visa application fee receipt.

Immigrant Visa Processing

DOS processes immigrant visas for foreign nationals who wish to immigrate permanently to the United States from abroad, including foreign nationals who are ineligible to adjust their status to that of an LPR in the United States.

Based on a USCIS-Approved Immigrant Visa Petition

USCIS sends the approved immigrant visa petition to the DOS NVC for consular processing of the immigrant visa if Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, Form I-140, Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker, or Form I-360, Petition for Amerasian, Widow(er), or Special Immigrant, indicates that the beneficiary will seek an immigrant visa through the consular process abroad or if the beneficiary is not eligible to adjust status in the United States. Once the NVC receives this approved immigrant visa petition, the NVC sends the beneficiary instructions on how to initiate the immigrant visa process and pay the immigrant visa processing fee.

You must have already paid the DOS immigrant visa processing fee and must provide USCIS with a copy of your DOS-issued immigrant visa processing fee receipt or other evidence of fee payment when you submit your provisional unlawful presence waiver application. You must submit the DOS immigrant visa processing fee receipt or other evidence of fee payment for the NVC case associated with the approved immigrant visa petition. Contact the NVC if you need another copy of your DOS-issued immigrant visa processing fee receipt.

Based on the Diversity Visa Program

DOS administers the DV Program. To participate in the program, a foreign national must register with DOS during the designated registration period. If DOS selects the foreign national from the pool of

Instead, you must file Form I-601, Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility, from outside the United States after you are interviewed for the immigrant visa, and the DOS consular officer finds you are inadmissible on a waivable ground. USCIS will use the date that DOS initially acted to schedule your interview to determine if you are eligible to file Form I-601A and not the date you are scheduled to appear for your immigrant visa interview. Extreme Hardship to a Qualifying Relative You must show that you have a U.S. citizen	registrants to continue the DV process, DOS instructs the DV Program selectee and any derivatives on how to obtain an immigrant visa. [Page 7] If you are a DV Program selectee or derivative, you can submit a provisional unlawful presence waiver request to USCIS as soon as you are selected. Part 3. Information About Your Immediate Relative Petition and the Processing of Your Immigrant Visa Application

In this section, provide information about the approved immigrant visa petition that classifies you as the immediate relative of a U.S. citizen (either Form I-130 or I-360), and the status of your immigrant visa application at the NVC.

Item Number 1. USCIS Receipt Number. Provide the receipt number for the approved immigrant visa petition that classifies you as an immediate relative of a U.S. citizen. Submit a copy (if available) of the petition approval notice (Form I-797, Notice of Action). This will assist USCIS in processing your application for a provisional unlawful presence waiver.

Part 3. Information About Your Immigrant Visa Case

In this section, provide information about the approved immigrant visa petition (either Form I-130, Form I-140, or I-360), and the status of your immigrant visa application at the NVC.

Item Numbers 1.a. - 1.e. Provide the basis on which you are immigrating to the United States (Select only one box).

USCIS will use the date DOS initially acted to schedule your immigrant visa interview for the approved immediate relative petition upon which your Form I-601A is based. You can find information about how to determine when DOS took action to schedule your immigrant visa interview on the DOS Web site at www.immigrantvisas.state.gov or you can contact the NVC. If DOS initially acted before January 3, 2013 to schedule your immigrant visa interview, you are not eligible to file Form I-601A, even if you failed to appear for your immigrant visa interview or you or DOS canceled or rescheduled the interview on or after January 3, 2013.

If you indicate on your Form I-601A that DOS initially acted before January 3, 2013, to schedule you for an immigrant visa interview, or if you do not answer the question, USCIS will reject your application for a provisional unlawful presence waiver and return your filing fee, biometric services fee (if applicable), and application package. USCIS may also deny your application if you indicate that DOS did not initially act before January 3, 2013, to schedule you for an immigrant visa the interview, but DOS records indicate the opposite.

Part 4. Information About Your Qualifying Relative

In this section, provide information about the U.S. citizen spouse or parent you believe would experience extreme hardship if you were refused admission to the United States and your U.S. citizen spouse or parent chooses to remain in the United States without you or chooses to relocate abroad to reside with you outside of the United States.

DOS Immigrant Visa Application Processing Fee Receipt

You must submit a copy of your fee receipt for your DOS immigrant visa application processing fee. Place this fee receipt on top of your Form I-601A when you submit your application. See the Specific Instructions section of these instructions for more information.

Relationship to a Qualifying Relative

If you claim extreme hardship to a U.S. citizen spouse or parent who is the immigrant visa petitioner, you do not need to present evidence of your relationship to the petitioner. The immigrant visa petitioner will have already presented this evidence when he or she filed the immediate relative petition (Form I-130 or I-360).

However, if you claim extreme hardship to a qualifying relative who is not the immigrant visa petitioner, you must submit evidence that shows the qualifying relationship.

DOS Immigrant Visa Processing Fee Receipt (for immediate relatives, family-sponsored, and employment-based immigrant visa applicants only)

If you are seeking your immigrant visa based on an approved immigrant visa petition (Form I-130, Form I-140, or Form I-360), you must submit a copy of your fee receipt for your DOS immigrant visa processing fee. Place this fee receipt on top of your Form I-601A when you submit your application. See the Specific Instructions section of these Instructions for more information.

NOTE: If you are applying for a provisional unlawful presence waiver based on your selection as a DV Program selectee or derivative, you do not need to provide a copy of the DOS immigrant visa processing fee receipt with your provisional unlawful presence waiver application.

Relationship to Qualifying Relative

If you are seeking your immigrant visa based on an approved family-sponsored immigrant visa petition and claim extreme hardship to a U.S. citizen or LPR spouse or parent who is the immigrant visa petitioner, you do not need to present evidence of your relationship to the petitioner. The immigrant visa petitioner will have already presented this evidence when he or she filed the immigrant visa petition (Form I-130 or Form I-360).

You must submit evidence that shows the qualifying relationship if:

1. You are seeking your immigrant visa based on an approved employment-based immigrant visa petition;
2. You are a DV Program selectee or derivative; or
3. You are seeking your immigrant visa based on an approved family-sponsored immigrant visa petition and you claim

A biometric services fee of $85 is also required for applicants between 14 and 79 years of age. Therefore, the fees you must submit with the application are: 1. $585 if you are under 14 years of age or older than 79 years of age.

	2. $585 if you are 79 years of age or older. 3. You may not request a fee waiver for the Form I-601A filing fee or biometric services fee. NOTE: The filing fee and biometric services fee are not refundable, regardless of any action USCIS takes on this application. DO NOT mail cash. You must submit all fees in the exact amounts. Use the following guidelines when you prepare your checks or money orders for the Form I-601A filing fee and biometric services fee: 1. The check or money order must be drawn on a bank or other financial institution located in the United States and must be payable in U.S. currency; and 2. Make the checks or money orders payable to U.S. Department of Homeland Security. NOTE: Spell out U.S. Department of Homeland Security; do not use the initials "USDHS" or "DHS." Notice to Those Making Payment by Check. If you send us a check, USCIS will convert it into an electronic funds transfer (EFT). This means we will copy your check and use the account information on it to electronically debit your account for the amount of the check. The debit from your account will usually take 24 hours and your bank will show it on your regular account statement. You will not receive your original check back. We will destroy your original check, but will keep a copy of it. If USCIS cannot process the EFT for technical reasons, you authorize us to process the copy in place of your original check. If USCIS cannot complete the EFT because of insufficient funds, we may try to make the transfer two additional times. How to Check If the Fees Are Correct Form I-601A filing fee and biometric	[Deleted] 2.
