

Broadcast Email Announcement

Subject: Participants needed for questionnaire testing

From the Desk of Paul Beatty (Chief, Center for Behavioral Science and Methods)

The Center for Behavioral Science and Methods is looking for participants to help test question wording on a national survey about household expenses. Interviews will be one hour and will take place at a convenient location, including at the Census Bureau in Suitland, Maryland. We will provide $40 to each person who participates in the study (federal employees are not eligible to receive the $40). We particularly need participants who meet any of the following criteria:

- Live with at least one other adult
- Live with children under the age of 18
- Have a household income below 40k a year

If interested, please call Kevin at (301) 763-4979, and mention household expenses, or email him at csm.participate@census.gov.

Please feel free to pass this request along to other people that you may know in the Washington, D.C. area. Only one person per household may qualify.

Craigslist Advertisement

Volunteers needed to test survey - $40 for 1 hour

The U.S. Census Bureau is looking for people who meet any of the following criteria:

- Live with at least one other adult
- Live with children under the age of 18
- Have a household income below 40k a year

Only one person per household may qualify. Each participant will receive $40.00 compensation for participating in this study. Those participants meeting any of the requirements should call Kevin at (301) 763-4979 or email him at csm.participate@census.gov. Please mention the words household expenses.

Please feel free to pass this request along to other people that you may know in the Washington, D.C. area.