

U.S. Department of Justice

Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives

Federal Firearms Licensee Alert Survey

Recently, you received an Federal Firearms Licensee (FFL) Alert, an automated call or e-mail from the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives alerting you to a robbery or burglary of an FFL in your area involving the theft of firearms. We would like to ask you a few short questions about your experience receiving FFL Alert.

1. Did you listen to the call or read the e-mail? Yes No (if "Yes" go to #2 or "No" go to #4)
2. Was the message complete and understandable? Yes No
3. Was the call and/or e-mail beneficial? Yes No Did you increase security around your business in response to the FFL Alert? Yes No
4. Do you want to continue to receive FFL Alerts? Yes No
5. What additional information would you like include in the FFL Alerts? Open ended.

Thank you for completing the survey. Your input will assist us in improving the program.