Other change The instrument is changing to make some questions easier for respondents to understand and to change the manner in which the instrument is processed. Recent clarifications to the applicable regulations also generated a need to change the instrument. Accordingly, the instrument is also changing to allow a respondent who is married, filed a joint income tax return, but has since become separated from his or her spouse to complete the application. These modifications are minor in nature, and do not affect the burden associated with the instrument.
