Due date: No later than 45 calendar days after the new legal entity is established.

Who must report: A BE-13B report must be filed by a U.S. business enterprise when a foreign entity, or an existing U.S. affiliate of a foreign entity, establishes a new legal entity in the United States and (1) the projected total cost to establish the new legal entity is greater than $3 million, and (2) the foreign entity owns 10 percent or more of the new business enterprise's voting interest (directly or indirectly).

INCLUDE:

- Creation of a new legal entity whether incorporated or unincorporated, including a branch.
- Construction of real estate intended for lease or sale. If the construction is for purposes of an expansion see the instructions for reporting as an expansion on Form BE-13D.
- Creation of a new legal entity even if it does not have physical operations.

EXCLUDE:

- Purchase of U.S. real estate that is intended for lease or sale without significant added construction. This is deemed to be an acquisition of a U.S. business enterprise and should be reported on Form BE-13A.
- The creation of a holding company that is being set up with less than $60 million, solely to acquire at least one target company within 180 days, and then will be dissolved.
- Establishment of a new legal entity created for the sole purpose of acquiring a single entity within 30 days after the establishment. Consolidate the new legal entity with the acquired entity in a single report on the BE-13A.

Alternate forms:

Report on Form BE-13A if a foreign entity acquires a voting interest (directly, or indirectly through an existing U.S. affiliate) in an existing U.S. business enterprise, segment, or operating unit and (1) the total cost of the acquisition is greater than $3 million, and (2) by this acquisition, at least 10 percent of the voting interest in the acquired entity is now held (directly or indirectly) by the foreign entity.

Report on Form BE-13D if an existing U.S. affiliate of a foreign parent expands its operations to include a new facility where business is conducted and the projected total cost of the expansion is greater than $3 million.

Report on Form BE-13E if the U.S. business enterprise previously filed a BE-13B or BE-13D and BEA contacts the business for a Form BE-13E. The form collects updated project information and will be collected annually until the establishment or expansion project is complete.

Report on Form BE-13 Claim for Exemption if the U.S. business enterprise

- (1) was contacted by BEA but does not meet the requirements for filing forms BE-13A, BE-13B, or BE-13D; or
- (2) whether or not contacted by BEA, met all requirements for filing forms BE-13A, BE-13B, or BE-13D except the $3 million reporting threshold.

*See page 13 for penalties and confidentiality statements.

BE-13B – New U.S. Business Enterprise Information

NEW U.S. BUSINESS ENTERPRISE INFORMATION

1 Is the new U.S. business enterprise a holding company?

A holding company is one whose primary activity is holding the securities of other companies.

100 1 Yes – Select every statement below that applies to the new U.S. business enterprise (holding company):

- 2 A It is being set up solely for the purpose of acquiring or establishing at least one other U.S. business enterprise.
- 3 B The initial capitalization, including debt and equity, of the holding company is $60 million or less.
- 4 C The acquisition or establishment is occurring within 180 days of the creation of the holding company.
- 5 D The holding company will be dissolved after the acquisition or establishment.

If all four options A-D were selected, then the new U.S. business enterprise (holding company) can file a Form BE-13 Claim for Exemption instead of completing the rest of this form.

- 6 E The new U.S. business enterprise (holding company) was established solely to make a single acquisition within 30 days. Do not file this Form BE-13B. Report the acquisition on a single Form BE-13A.

2 What date was the new U.S. business enterprise established? 101

$ Bil. Mil. Thous. Dols.

3 What is the total expected cost to all foreign parents' affiliated foreign groups (see EXAMPLE 1) and their U.S. affiliates to set up the new U.S. business enterprise? 102

1	,000

INCLUDE:

- Actual expenditures from past years and expected expenditures for current and future years
- The cost of voting and non-voting equity interests.

EXCLUDE:

- The cost to any U.S. entity that is not affiliated with any of the foreign parents.

Affiliated foreign group means:

- (1) the foreign parent,
- (2) any foreign entity, proceeding up the foreign parent's ownership chain, that owns more than 50 percent of the entity below it up to and including that entity which is not owned more than 50 percent by another foreign entity, and
- (3) any foreign entity, proceeding down the ownership chain(s) of each of these members, which is owned more than 50 percent by the entity above it.

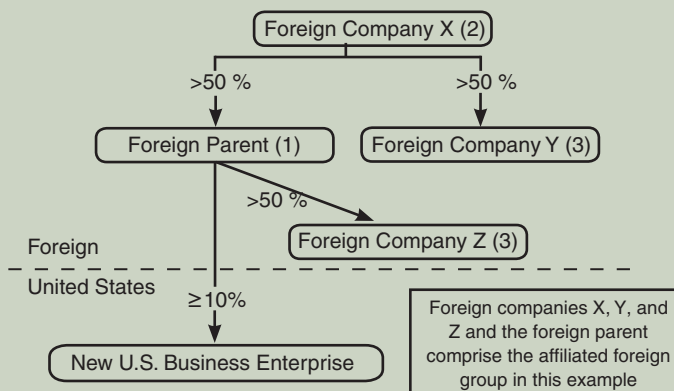

(As used here, "entity" is synonymous with "person," as that term is used in the broad legal sense.)

Affiliate means a business enterprise located in one country that is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by an entity of another country to the extent of 10 percent or more of its voting stock for an incorporated business or an equivalent interest for an unincorporated business enterprise.

Business enterprise means any organization, association, branch, or venture that exists for profit making purposes or to otherwise secure economic advantage, and ownership of any real estate that is not held for personal use.

Entity (as used here, "entity" is synonymous with "person," as that term is used in the broad legal sense) means any individual, branch, partnership, associated group, association, estate, trust, corporation, or other organization (whether or not organized under the laws of any state), and any government (including a foreign government, the United States Government, a state or local government, and any agency, corporation, financial institution, or other entity or instrumentality thereof, including a government-sponsored agency).

EXAMPLE 1. Affiliated Foreign Group

Foreign parent is the FIRST entity incorporated outside the United States, proceeding up a chain of ownership, that has 10 percent or more voting interest (direct or indirect) in this U.S. affiliate.

Voting interest is the percent of ownership in the voting securities of an incorporated business enterprise or an equivalent interest in an unincorporated business enterprise.

- In a general or limited partnership, voting interest is presumed to be divided evenly between the general partners, and limited partners are presumed to have zero voting interest, unless otherwise stated in the partnership agreement.
- In the case of a limited liability corporation (LLC), voting interest is presumed to be divided equally between the members (owners), unless otherwise stated in the articles of organization or in the operating agreement.

Foreign parent is the FIRST entity incorporated outside the United States, proceeding up a chain of ownership, that has 10 percent or more voting interest (direct or indirect) in this U.S. affiliate.

Country of residence for individuals who do not reside in their country of citizenship is determined using the following guidelines:

- (1) Individuals who reside, or expect to reside, outside their country of citizenship for less than one year are considered to be residents of their country of citizenship.
- (2) Individuals who reside, or expect to reside, outside their country of citizenship for one year or more are considered to be residents of the country in which they are residing, except as provided in (3) below.
- (3) If an owner or employee of a business enterprise resides outside the country of location of the enterprise for one year or more for the purpose of furthering the business of the enterprise, and the country of the business enterprise is the country of citizenship of the owner or employee, then the owner or employee is considered a resident of the country of citizenship provided he or she intends to return within a reasonable period of time.
- (4) Individuals and members of their immediate families who reside outside their country of citizenship as a result of employment by the government of that country – diplomats, consular official, members of the armed forces, etc. – are considered to be residents of their country of citizenship.

BE-13B – Definitions

Affiliate means a business enterprise located in one country that is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by an entity of another country to the extent of 10 percent or more of its voting stock for an incorporated business or an equivalent interest for an unincorporated business enterprise.

Affiliated foreign group means:

- (1) the foreign parent,
- (2) any foreign entity, proceeding up the foreign parent's ownership chain, that owns more than 50 percent of the entity below it up to and including that entity which is not owned more than 50 percent by another foreign entity; and
- (3) any foreign entity, proceeding down the ownership chain(s) of each of these members, which is owned more than 50 percent by the entity above it.

Associated group means two or more entities who, by the appearance of their actions, by agreement, or by an understanding, exercise their voting privileges in a concerted manner to influence the management of a business enterprise. Each of the following are deemed to be an associated group:

- (1) Members of the same family,
- (2) A business enterprise and one or more of its officers and directors,
- (3) Members of a syndicate or joint venture, or
- (4) An incorporated business enterprise and its domestic subsidiaries.

Branch means the operations or activities conducted by an entity in a different location in its own name rather than through an incorporated entity.

Business enterprise means any organization, association, branch, or venture that exists for profit making purposes or to otherwise secure economic advantage, and ownership of any real estate that is not held for personal use.

Country of residence for individuals who do not reside in their country of citizenship is determined using the following guidelines:

- (1) Individuals who reside, or expect to reside, outside their country of citizenship for less than one year are considered to be residents of their country of citizenship.
- (2) Individuals who reside, or expect to reside, outside their country of citizenship for one year or more are considered to be residents of the country in which they are residing, except as provided in (3) below.
- (3) If an owner or employee of a business enterprise resides outside the country of location of the enterprise for one year or more for the purpose of furthering the business of the enterprise, and the country of the business enterprise is the country of citizenship of the owner or employee, then the owner or employee is considered a resident of the country of citizenship provided he or she intends to return within a reasonable period of time.
- (4) Individuals and members of their immediate families who reside outside their country of citizenship as a result of employment by the government of that country – diplomats, consular officials, members of the armed forces, etc. – are considered to be residents of their country of citizenship.

Direct investment means the ownership or control, directly or indirectly, by one entity of 10 percent or more of the voting interest in a business enterprise.

Entity (as used here, "entity" is synonymous with "person," as that term is used in the broad legal sense) means any individual, branch, partnership, associated group, association, estate, trust, corporation, or other organization (whether or not organized under the laws of any state), and any government (including a foreign government, the United States Government, a state or local government, and any agency, corporation, financial institution, or other entity or instrumentality thereof, including a government-sponsored agency).

Foreign when used in a geographic sense, means that which is situated outside the United States or which belongs to or is characteristic of a country other than the United States.

Foreign direct investment in the United States means the ownership or control, directly or indirectly, by one foreign investor of 10 percent or more of the voting securities of an incorporated U.S. business enterprise or an equivalent interest in an unincorporated U.S. business enterprise, including a branch or partnership.

Foreign parent is the FIRST entity incorporated outside the United States, proceeding up a chain of ownership, that has 10 percent or more voting interest (direct or indirect) in this U.S. affiliate.

U.S. affiliate means an affiliate located in the United States in which a foreign entity has a direct investment.

United States when used in a geographical sense, means the 50 states, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and all territories and possessions of the United States.

Voting interest is the percent of ownership in the voting securities of an incorporated business enterprise or an equivalent interest in an unincorporated business enterprise.

- In a general or limited partnership, voting interest is presumed to be divided evenly between the general partners, and limited partners are presumed to have zero voting interest, unless otherwise stated in the partnership agreement.
- In the case of a limited liability corporation (LLC), voting interest is presumed to be divided equally between the members (owners), unless otherwise stated in the articles of organization or in the operating agreement.

SURVEY INFORMATION

Purpose: This survey collects data on the acquisition or establishment of U.S. business enterprises by foreign investors and the expansion of existing U.S. affiliates of foreign companies to establish a new production facility. The data collected on the survey are used to measure the amount of new foreign direct investment in the United States, assess the impact on the U.S. economy, and based on this assessment, make informed policy decisions regarding foreign direct investment in the United States.

Authority: This survey is being conducted under the International Investment and Trade in Services Survey Act (P.L. 94-472, 90 Stat. 2059, 22 U.S.C. 3101-3108, as amended) hereinafter "the Act", and the filing of reports is MANDATORY pursuant to Section 5(b)(2) of the Act (22 U.S.C. 3104). The implementing regulations are contained in Title 15, CFR, Part 801.

Penalties: Whoever fails to report may be subject to a civil penalty of not less than $2,500, and not more than $32,500, and to injunctive relief commanding such person to comply, or both. Whoever willfully fails to report shall be fined not more than $10,000 and, if an individual, may be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. Any officer, director, employee, or agent of any corporation who knowingly participates in such violation, upon conviction, may be punished by a like fine, imprisonment, or both. (22 U.S.C. 3105.) Civil penalties are subject to inflationary adjustments. Those adjustments are found in 15 CFR 6.4.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, no person is required to respond to, nor shall any person be subject to a penalty for failure to comply with, a collection of information subject to the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act, unless that collection of information displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

Respondent burden: Public reporting burden for this BE-13B form is estimated to average 2.2 hours per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing burden, to: Director, Bureau of Economic Analysis (BE-1), U.S. Department of Commerce, 4600 Silver Hill Rd., Washington, DC 20233; and to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project 0608-0035, Washington, DC 20503.

Confidentiality: The Act provides that your report to this Bureau is CONFIDENTIAL and may be used only for analytical or statistical purposes. Without your prior written permission, the information filed in your report CANNOT be presented in a manner that allows it to be individually identified. Your report CANNOT be used for purposes of taxation, investigation, or regulation. Copies retained in your files are immune from legal process.
