INDEPENDENT RECOURSE MECHANISM AVAILABLE TO INVESTIGATE COMPLAINTS CONCERNING YOUR ORGANIZATION'S COMPLIANCE WITH THE PRIVACY SHIELD FRAMEWORK

For personal data other than human resources data:

If your organization wishes its Privacy Shield commitments to cover personal data other than human resources data, on an annual basis you must designate a private sector developed independent recourse mechanism, or you may choose to cooperate with the EU data protection authorities (DPA) and have a DPA panel serve as your independent recourse mechanism. Your annual selection will apply to all information received by your organization under the Privacy Shield other than human resources data.

{select one} [required]

- private sector developed independent recourse mechanism
- EU data protection authorities

Provide the name and a web address for the designated private sector developed independent recourse mechanism:

{field, maximum 4,000 characters} [required]

For human resources data:

If your organization wishes its Privacy Shield commitments to cover human resources data, you must declare your organization's commitment to cooperate with the EU authority or authorities concerned in conformity with the Supplemental Principles on Human Resources Data and the Role of the Data Protection Authorities and that you will comply with the advice given by such authorities.

{select one} [required]

- My organization receives or processes human resources data under the Privacy Shield and agrees to cooperate with EU data protection authorities and comply with the advice given by such authorities with respect to this data.
