Privacy Act Statement Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 205 and 1106 of the Social Security Act, as amended, and the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. § 552a) authorize us to collect this information. We need this information to register you or your company and your authorized employee(s) to use our system for verifying Social Security numbers (SSN) and to contact you, if necessary.

Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide us with all or part of the information may prevent you or your company from using the service.

We rarely use the information you supply us for any purpose other than to register you or your company and your authorized employee(s) to use our system for verifying SSNs and to contact you. However, we may use it for the administration and integrity of our programs. We may also disclose the information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, including but not limited to the following:

1. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from Social Security records (e.g. to the Government Accountability Office and Department of Veterans Affairs);
2. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to assure the integrity and improvement of Social Security programs;
3. To respond to a request from a Congressional office or the Office of the President made to that office at the request of the subject of a record; and
4. To other Federal agencies and our contractors, including external data sources, to assist us in efficiently administering our programs.

A complete list of routine uses of the information you provided us is available in our System of Records Notice entitled, Central Repository of Electronic Authentication Data Master File, 60-0373. Additional information about these and other system of records notices and our programs are available online at www.socialsecurity.gov or at your local Social Security office.
