Part 7. Other Grounds for Removal

If you believe you may be subject to removal on any grounds besides the criminal convictions listed in Part 3. Information About Your Criminal Convictions, provide a full explanation of why you may be subject to removal.

The other grounds of removal may be any inadmissibility grounds in section 212(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act or any deportability grounds in section 237(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

If you have a criminal history besides the criminal convictions listed in Part 3. Information About Your Criminal Convictions, list these incidents and provide a full explanation. If you have ever been arrested or detained by any law enforcement officer for any reason, and no charges were filed, include an original official statement by the arresting or detaining agency or applicable court order confirming that no charges were filed.

If you were arrested or detained by any law enforcement officer for any reason and charges were filed, or if charges were filed against you without an arrest, submit an original or court-certified copy of the complete arrest record and/or disposition for each incident (for example, a dismissal order or an acquittal order).

If you need extra space to complete your statement, use the space provided in Part 12. Additional Information or attach a separate letter.

Multiple horizontal lines for writing.

Part 8. Discretion

In the space provided below, explain why you believe your application should be approved as a matter of discretion, with the favorable factors outweighing the unfavorable factors in your case. For more information on discretion, see the application Instructions. If you need extra space to complete your statement, use the space provided in Part 12. Additional Information, or attach a separate letter. Indicate in the space provided if you are including a separate letter. If you submit a separate letter, you must submit the letter at the same time as your Form I-191 application.
