

Profile Screenshots for USAJOBS Fast Track PRA Submission (as of 7/13/2016)

Purpose:

USAJOBS intends on making minor changes to the USAJOBS Profile for an upcoming release. The changes included in this submission focus on implementing plain language, eliminating extraneous fields and implementing web form design best practices. USAJOBS believe the outlined changes will greatly improve the Profile user experience be eliminating ambiguity and streamlining the web form. None of the changes alter the intent of a question or request new information from USAJOBS account holders. USAJOBS believes that all of the outlined changes are non-substantive therefore should be submitted through the Fast Track Process. A more robust PRA submission will be submitted for the USAJOBS Profile in September 2016 in preparation for its approval expiration in March 2017.

Document Instructions:

At the top of every page is a label that indicates what section of the Profile has been screenshot.

Change in Dropdown Options: The selection options in a dropdown have changed or been deleted.

Form Design Change: The form design change label is usually associated with user interface design changes. This could include combining input fields or adding dependencies to existing input fields. The requested information is not changing intent, just being displayed differently.

Extraneous Field Removed: An input form field has been removed because the question is no longer valuable to the job seeker, USAJOBS system or hiring authority.

Text Change: The text change label indicates that the question or statement has been altered to improve understanding or plain language. The intent of the questions or statements does not change, just how it is phrased.
