Part 1b: Lead Prog. Activities/Partner Info.

• Lead Applicant Programmatic Activities

Submit representative examples of your programmatic activities for the past three years/seasons (up to 5 examples per year/season). Note: You can't change the years/seasons. If you need to provide information for different years/seasons, please note the years you are using in the "Programmatic Activity notes" section below.

These examples should demonstrate eligibility (i.e., your organization's three-year history of programming) and the artistic excellence and merit of your organization. For projects that involve touring, list your organization's touring activities for the past three years/seasons. If you do not have touring information, leave the section blank (i.e., do not type "N/A").

Major Project Activities: This serves as the project narrative. Describe the proposed project. Be as thorough and specific as possible about the activities that will take place during the allowable project period.
Where relevant, include information on any additional public components such as educational or outreach activities associated with the project. Do not describe unrelated organizational programming. If applicable, identify any works of art that will be central to the project and the reason for their selection. *

• Selection of Other Key Organizational Partners: If your project involves other organizational partners in addition to the required non-arts partner, describe the process and criteria for the selection of key organizations. Where relevant, describe their involvement in the development of the project to date. Where they remain to be selected, describe the selection procedures that you plan to follow and the qualifications that you seek. An organizational partner is an outside entity that will provide resources (other than money) to support the project. Because all NEA projects require matching resources from non-federal sources, organizations that only provide money are not considered partners. Funders are not excluded from being partners, but hey must also supply

Part 5: Organization and Project Profile

The National Endowment for the Arts collects basic descriptive information about all applicants and their projects. The information that follows will help the NEA to comply with government reporting requirements, and will be used to develop statistical information about the organizations and projects it funds to report to Congress and the public. Your responses will not be a factor in the review of your application.

Applicant Organization Discipline: Select the primary discipline that is most relevant to your organization and, optionally, up to two additional disciplines. This refers to the primary artistic emphasis of your organization. This selection will not be used in the review of your application. See Part 2: Project Information: NEA Discipline to choose the discipline that you would like to review your project. *

- Race/Ethnicity U.S. federal government agencies must adhere to standards issued by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) in October 1997, which specify that race and Hispanic origin (also known as ethnicity) are two separate and distinct concepts. These standards generally reflect a social definition of race and ethnicity recognized in this country, and they do not conform to any biological, anthropological, or genetic criteria. Origin can be viewed as the heritage, nationality group, lineage, or country of birth of the person or the person's ancestors before their arrival in the United States.

 - American Indian or Alaskan Native A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) and who maintains tribal affiliation or community attachment.
 - Asian A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian subcontinent including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand, and Vietnam.
 - Black or African American A person having origins in any of the Black racial groups of Africa.
 - Hispanic or Latino People who identify their origin as Hispanic, Latino, or Spanish may be of any race.
 - Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii, Guam, Samoa, or other Pacific Islands.

White - A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, the Middle East, or North Africa.

Be sure to click Save before clicking Submit.

You must click Submit to finalize your application for NEA review.

Don't forget to hit the "Submit" button when you are ready to submit your application. If you do not hit the "Submit" button, your application will not be received.

After submitting your application, you may log back into NEA-GO and make modifications to your submission up until the system closes on the day of the deadline. Remember to hit the "Save" and "Submit" button again prior the deadline.

You will receive confirmation of your successful submission in two ways: 1) a pop up on your screen, and 2) an email from noreply@culturegrants.org. Maintain documentation of your successful submission (take a screenshot and/or keep the email). If you modify your application after you submit, you will not receive additional confirmations.

You also can confirm that your application was received when you log in to NEA-GO. On the first screen it will say "Received" if your application has been received. If your application has not yet been received, it will say "In Progress."
