The screen was modified slightly. Applicants receive this screen after selecting the type of claim they are applying for. In this case when the applicant selects “Apply for Disability” from any entry point, they are directed to this screen. The formatting was changed to improve the look of the screen and to modify the language applicable to the i3368 form. The change also applies to our welcome pages for RIB, DIB, and Medicare.

Who Is Completing This Application?

Tell us information about the person completing this application:

- I am applying for myself.
- I am helping someone who wants to apply for benefits and is with me.
- I am helping someone who is not with me, and therefore cannot sign the application at this time.

Blind or visually impaired applicants can use the Internet Special Notices Option page to choose how to receive notices from Social Security.

Please select one:

- I am not blind or visually impaired.
- I am blind or visually impaired. I have visited and made a selection in the Internet Special Notice Options page.

Supplemental Security Income
Supplemental Security Income or SSI is a federal program that provides monthly payments to people who have limited income and assets and:

- who are blind; or
- who have a disability; or
- who are age 65 or older.

For more information about the SSI program, please read the pamphlet, Supplemental Security Income.

Electronic Signature Agreement

Please read and accept the following agreement before continuing the disability process. If you are helping someone apply, then the person filing for benefits must read and accept this agreement by checking the box themselves.

I understand and agree that my application will be signed electronically when I select the check box below. I also understand that my electronic signature means that I intend to apply for benefits and have provided the Social Security Administration with accurate information. I declare under penalty of perjury that I have examined all the information provided and it is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I understand that anyone who knowingly gives a false or misleading statement about a material fact in this electronic application, or causes someone else to do so, commits a crime and may be sent to prison or may face other penalties, or both.

I agree with the Electronic Signature Agreement above.

 You will no longer be able to change this information once you continue to Step 2.

When you select "Accept & Continue" below, you will be sending this completed information electronically to the Social Security Administration. Please make sure that everything is correct.
