Your eligibility will also depend on your ability to establish good moral character and your ability to meet the English and civics requirements for naturalization.

You are required to have been married to and living with your spouse for the past 3 years and your spouse is required to have been a U.S. citizen for the past 3 years.

Your eligibility will also depend on your ability to establish good moral character and your ability to meet the English and civics requirements for naturalization.

If you are the spouse of a deceased service member who was a U.S. citizen, you are required to have been married to and living with your U.S. citizen spouse at the time of his or her death in order to be eligible as the spouse of a deceased service member. You are still eligible for naturalization if you remarry after your spouse's death.

Your eligibility will also depend on your ability to establish good moral character and your ability to meet the English and civics requirements for naturalization.

You are required to be a lawful permanent resident at the time of your USCIS interview.

Your eligibility will also depend on your ability to establish good moral character and your ability to meet the English and civics requirements for naturalization.

You are required to reside in a state in a USCIS service district for at least 3 months before filing your application. Any time you resided in America Samoa or Swains Island counts as time in the United States for the continuous presence and physical presence requirements.
