Our firm, which is engaged in the manufacture of citrus products, hereby requests that the Texas Valley Citrus Committee (Committee) approve this application for eligibility under sections 906.34 and 906.40 of Marketing Order No. 906.

In submitting this application, the undersigned organization understands that all the Texas citrus our firm receives that is exempt from regulations must be used solely for the processing of juice products. We agree:

- 1. that citrus received for processing will under no circumstances enter into fresh fruit marketing channels;
- 2. not to sell or transfer for sale, directly or indirectly, any fruit from Texas for processing;
- 3. to maintain our Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act (PACA) license during the period when buying fruit from Texas;
- 4. to undergo random inspection by the Committee or by a designated State/Federal Agency;
- 5. to not have facilities, equipment, or outlets to repack or sell fruit in its fresh form;
- 6. to report on the "Orange and Grapefruit Diversion Report" provided by the Handler from whom the fruit is purchased, the actual weight of the fruit, by attaching the scale ticket at the point of receiving to the proper copy of the Diversion Report. This shall be returned to the Committee within the week; and
- 7. that failure to comply with the terms of this Agreement, will cause removal of our name from the list of certified processors.

This Agreement, when signed by an authorized agent and returned to the Committee, will serve as certification of a receiver of Texas citrus for processing into juice products.
