*THE PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT OF 1995 (Pub. The Children’s Bureau (CB) recently announced through waiver listserv the initiation of the National Study of the 2012, 2013, and 2014 cohorts of waiver demonstrations. The Fiscal Flexibility and Practice and Systems-Level Change Telephone Survey (FFPSCTS) is one component of the National Study being conducted by James Bell Associates (JBA).

The FFPSCTS is focused on practice- and system-level changes as they relate to fiscal flexibility. The FFPSCTS is targeted to child welfare agency/department directors or managers in a range of positions (e.g., programs, policy, fiscal, research/evaluation). We anticipate that the FFPSCTS will take approximately 45-60 minutes to complete. In the table below, please provide the contact information for four representatives from your waiver jurisdiction to participate in the FFPSCTS. Please include one representative from each of the categories listed above, if possible. If you have any questions, please contact Charlie Ferguson (ferguson@jbassoc.com).
