What Is the Purpose of Form G-1041?

You should use Form G-1041 to request a search of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) historical databases. To obtain copies of USCIS historical records, use Form G-1041A, Genealogy Records Request.

Requests for searches of USCIS historical databases are used to determine whether any USCIS records exist on the immigrant and, if such records exist, to capture the file number and/or other identifier of each record.

Who Should Use Form G-1041?

You should use this Form G-1041 if you are a:

1. Researcher seeking records of your ancestors for genealogical or family history purposes;

NOTE: For information about the Index Search process, visit Searching The Index at www.uscis.gov/genealogy.

When Should Form G-1041 Not Be Used?

You should not use Form G-1041 to request:

1. Records of naturalization prior to September 27, 1906. Consult Federal records stored at the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) Record Group 21, at www.archives.gov/research/guide-fed-records/groups/021.html or contact the clerk of the court where the naturalization occurred;

3. Certification of Nonexistence of a Naturalization Record. All these requests must be submitted to the USCIS Records Operations Branch at www.uscis.gov/unassigned/faq/how-do-i-get-certification-non-existence-record-or-no-naturalization-record-deceased-immigrant;

5. Deportation records.

NOTE: For any records not specifically mentioned in Form G-1041 or not available through any other USCIS program, use Form G-639, Freedom of Information/Privacy Act Request.

What Information Is Required To Begin an Index Search?

The following information is required to initiate a search of USCIS historical indices:

1. Required Information:
  - A. Immigrant's full name (last, first, and middle);
  - B. Alias names or variant spellings, if any;

- C. Date of birth (provide whether date given is exact or an estimated year); and
  - D. Country or place of birth.
2. Additional data will help identify a certain immigrant from others with the same name, such as:
    - A. Date of the immigrant's arrival in the United States (provide whether the date is actual or estimated); and
    - B. The immigrant's residences in the United States including exact street address, city, and/or state. (For example, you could type or print, "in Pennsylvania until 1938, then lived in Madison, Wisconsin.")
  3. If the immigrant's date of birth is less than 100 years before today's date, you must attach documentary proof of death to this request. Examples of acceptable documentary proof of death include:
    - A. Death certificate (uncertified copy);
    - B. Printed obituaries, funeral programs, or photographs of gravestones;
    - C. Bible, church, or other religious records;
    - D. U.S. Social Security Death Index records (individual records only, not lists);
    - E. Records relating to the payment of death benefits; and
    - F. Other documents demonstrating that the immigrant of the request is deceased.

Submit a copy of one of these items with this request. Do not include original records because USCIS will not return such documents.

What If the Required Information Is Not Provided?

USCIS cannot make any search without at least the immigrant's name, year of birth, and country of birth. If the immigrant appears in USCIS records under a name other than that provided, we will return no matching records. We will search alternative names only if you provide the names, spellings, and aliases. Similarly, if multiple immigrants with the same name appear having the identical birth year and country, we will return no matching records (for example, actual or estimated date of arrival or naturalization, or place of residence when naturalized.) USCIS can identify an immigrant from among others with the same name only if you provide additional information.

NOTE: We will consider foreign versions of names as the same (for example, Giuseppe and Joseph, which are different spellings of the same name.)

To learn about various foreign spellings of common names and about alternate sources for some USCIS record file numbers, visit the USCIS Genealogy Program website at www.uscis.gov/genealogy.
