012	Attention 1
013	Street 1 1
014	Street 2 1
015	City 1	State 2	Zip 3
	Country 4

Due date: No later than 45 days after the completion of the acquisition.

Who must report: A BE-13C report must be filed by an existing U.S. affiliate of a foreign parent when it acquires a U.S. business enterprise or segment that it then merges into its operations and the total cost to acquire the business enterprise is greater than $3 million.

INCLUDE:

- Acquisition of a U.S. business enterprise or segment made directly by a foreign parent and then merged into an existing U.S. affiliate of that foreign parent.

EXCLUDE:

- Acquisition of voting interest in an existing U.S. affiliate in which a foreign entity already has a 10 percent voting interest. Report on form BE-13 Claim for Exemption.

Alternate forms:

Report on Form BE-13A if a foreign entity acquires a voting interest (directly, or indirectly through an existing U.S. affiliate) in an existing U.S. business enterprise, segment, or operating unit and (1) the total cost of the acquisition is greater than $3 million, (2) the U.S. business enterprise will operate as a separate legal entity, and (3) by this acquisition, at least 10 percent of the voting interest in the acquired entity is now held (directly or indirectly) by the foreign entity.

Report on Form BE-13B if a foreign entity, or an existing U.S. affiliate of a foreign entity, establishes a new legal entity in the United States and (1) the projected total cost to establish the new legal entity is greater than $3 million, and (2) the foreign entity owns 10 percent or more of the new business enterprise's voting interest (directly or indirectly).

Report on Form BE-13D if an existing U.S. affiliate of a foreign parent expands its operations to include a new facility where business is conducted and the projected total cost of the expansion is greater than $3 million.

Report on Form BE-13E if the U.S. business enterprise previously filed a BE-13B or BE-13D indicating that the established or expanded entity is still under construction. This form will collect updated cost information and will be collected annually until construction is complete.

Report on Form BE-13 Claim for Exemption if the U.S. business enterprise (1) was contacted by BEA but does not meet the requirements for filing forms BE-13A, BE-13B, BE-13C, or BE-13D; or (2) whether or not contacted by BEA, met all requirements for filing on forms BE-13A, BE-13B, BE-13C, or BE-13D except the $3 million reporting threshold.

*See page 8 for penalties and confidentiality statements.

BE-13C – Acquisition Information

Consolidated reporting by a merged entity (see EXAMPLE 1): A merged U.S. business enterprise (A) must file Form BE-13C on a fully consolidated domestic U.S. basis, including in the consolidation all U.S. business enterprises (B) in which it directly or indirectly owns more than 50 percent of the outstanding voting interest.

Exclude from the full consolidation all minority-owned U.S. business enterprises (C) and all foreign business enterprises owned by this U.S. business enterprise; however, include them on an equity basis.

- Minority-owned U.S. business enterprises must file a Form BE-13 Claim for Exemption if the minority-owned U.S. business has not previously filed a BE-13, BE-605, BE-12, or BE-15.

Hereinafter the consolidated U.S. businesses that were acquired by the existing U.S. affiliate are considered to be the 'merged entity'.

ACQUISITION INFORMATION

Foreign parent is the FIRST entity outside the United States, proceeding up a chain of ownership, that has a 10 percent or more voting interest in the merged entity.

SURVEY INFORMATION

Purpose: This survey collects data on the acquisition or establishment of U.S. business enterprises by foreign investors and the expansion of existing U.S. affiliates of foreign companies to establish a new production facility. The data collected on the survey are used to measure the amount of new foreign direct investment in the United States, assess the impact on the U.S. economy, and based on this assessment, make informed policy decisions regarding foreign direct investment in the United States.

Authority: This survey is being conducted under the International Investment and Trade in Services Survey Act (P.L. 94-472, 90 Stat. 2059, 22 U.S.C. 3101-3108, as amended) hereinafter "the Act", and the filing of reports is MANDATORY pursuant to Section 5(b)(2) of the Act (22 U.S.C. 3104). The implementing regulations are contained in Title 15, CFR, Part 801.

Penalties: Whoever fails to report may be subject to a civil penalty of not less than $2,500, and not more than $32,500, and to injunctive relief commanding such person to comply, or both. Whoever willfully fails to report shall be fined not more than $10,000 and, if an individual, may be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. Any officer, director, employee, or agent of any corporation who knowingly participates in such violation, upon conviction, may be punished by a like fine, imprisonment, or both. (22 U.S.C. 3105.) Civil penalties are subject to inflationary adjustments. Those adjustments are found in 15 CFR 6.4.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, no person is required to respond to, nor shall any person be subject to a penalty for failure to comply with, a collection of information subject to the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act, unless that collection of information displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

Respondent burden: Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 30 minutes per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to Washington Headquarters Office, Paperwork Reduction Project (0608-0035), Washington, DC 20503.

Confidentiality: The Act provides that your report to this Bureau is CONFIDENTIAL and may be used only for analytical or statistical purposes. Without your prior written permission, the information filed in your report CANNOT be presented in a manner that allows it to be individually identified. Your report CANNOT be used for purposes of taxation, investigation, or regulation. Copies retained in your files are immune from legal process.

DEFINITIONS

Affiliate means a business enterprise located in one country that is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by an entity of another country to the extent of 10 percent or more of its voting stock for an incorporated business or an equivalent interest for an unincorporated business, including a branch.

Affiliated foreign group means (i) the foreign parent, (ii) any foreign entity, proceeding up the foreign parent's ownership chain, that owns more than 50 percent of the entity below it up to and including that entity which is not owned more than 50 percent by another foreign entity, and (iii) any foreign entity, proceeding down the ownership chain(s) of each of these members, which is owned more than 50 percent by the entity above it.

Associated group means two or more persons who, by the appearance of their actions, by agreement, or by an understanding, exercise their voting privileges in a concerted manner to influence the management of a business enterprise. Each of the following are deemed to be an associated group:

- (1) Members of the same family,
- (2) A business enterprise and one or more of its officers and directors,
- (3) Members of a syndicate or joint venture, or
- (4) A corporation and its domestic subsidiaries.

Branch means the operations or activities conducted by an entity in a different location in its own name rather than through an incorporated entity.

Business enterprise means any organization, association, branch, or venture that exists for profit making purposes or to otherwise secure economic advantage, and any ownership of any real estate.

Employees should reflect normal operations of the U.S. business enterprise.

- (1) If a strike, or other interruption of operations, was in progress at the end of the year, report a number that represents normal operation.
- (2) If the business enterprises' activity involves large seasonal variations, report a number that represents an average for the year.

Entity (as used here, "entity" is synonymous with "person," as that term is used in the broad legal sense) means any individual, branch, partnership, associated group, association, estate, trust, corporation, or other organization (whether or not organized under the laws of any State), and any government (including a foreign government, the United States Government, a State or local government, and any agency, corporation, financial institution, or other entity or instrumentality thereof, including a government-sponsored agency).

Foreign when used in a geographic sense, means that which is situated outside the United States or which belongs to or is characteristic of a country other than the United States.

Foreign direct investment in the United States means the ownership or control, directly or indirectly, by one foreign investor of 10 percent or more of the voting securities of an incorporated U.S. business enterprise or an equivalent interest in an unincorporated U.S. business enterprise, including a branch or partnership.

Foreign parent means each and every foreign entity that directly holds a voting interest of 10 percent or more in the U.S. business enterprise identified as the U.S. affiliate.

Foreign residence for individuals who do not reside in their country of citizenship is determined using the following guidelines:

- (1) Individuals who reside, or expect to reside, outside their country of citizenship for less than one year are considered to be residents of their country of citizenship.
- (2) Individuals who reside, or expect to reside, outside their country of citizenship for one year or more are considered to be residents of the country in which they are residing, except as provided in 3 below.
- (3) If an owner or employee of a business enterprise resides outside the country of location of the enterprise for one year or more for the purpose of furthering the business of the enterprise, and the country of the business enterprise is the country of citizenship of the owner or employee, then the owner or employee is considered a resident of the country of citizenship provided he or she intends to return within a reasonable period of time.
- (4) Individuals and members of their immediate families who reside outside their country of citizenship as a result of employment by the government of that country – diplomats, consular officials, members of the armed forces, etc. – are considered to be residents of their country of citizenship.

Real estate ownership is a business enterprise unless the real estate is held exclusively for personal use. See the BE-13 Claim for Not Filing for more specific information.

U.S. affiliate means an affiliate located in the United States in which a foreign entity has a direct investment.

U.S. corporation means a business enterprise incorporated in the United States.

Unites States when used in a geographical sense, means the 50 States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and all territories and possessions of the United States.

Voting interest is the percent of ownership in the voting securities of an incorporated business enterprise or an equivalent interest in an unincorporated business enterprise, including a branch or partnership.
