The following instructions pertain to Form 3-200-2 that must be completed as an application for a U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Designated Port Exception Permit. Reminder: It is a violation to import or export fish and/or wildlife through any port listed on page 2 of this application prior to obtaining an Designated Port Exception Permit.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS:

- Complete all applicable blocks/lines/questions in Sections A through E.
- An incomplete application may cause delays in processing or may be returned to the applicant.
- Be sure you are completing the appropriate application form for the proposed activity.
- Print clearly or type in the information. Illegible applications may cause delays.
- Sign the application. Scans, faxes or copies of the original signature will not be accepted.
- No Designated Port Exception Permit will be issued if any information is missing from the application or if justification in Question E2 is incomplete.
- Mail the original application to the appropriate address on the attached address list.
- Keep a copy of your completed application.
- Allow at least 60 days for your application to be processed. (50 CFR 13.11)
- Applications are processed in the order they are received.

COMPLETE SECTION A (ONLY if applying as an individual – e.g. noncommercial import/export):

- Enter the complete name of the responsible individual who will be the permittee if a permit is issued. Enter personal information that identifies the applicant.
- If you are a U.S. Agent applying on behalf of a foreign entity, the personal information must pertain to the foreign entity, and a document evidencing power of attorney must be included with the application.

COMPLETE SECTION B:

- Enter the complete name of the business who will be the permittee if a Designated Port Exception Permit is issued.
- Except for U.S. Agent applying for a foreign entity, we no longer will accept applications signed by anyone other than the sole owner or principal officer. 50 CFR 13.12 clearly states that the applicant must certify they read and are familiar with applicable parts of subchapter B of Chapter I of Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations. No broker, freight forwarder, etc., can certify in the applicant's place. This section of the regulations also calls for the signature of the applicant.
- Give a brief description of the type of business in which the applicant is engaged (e.g. Taxidermy, Jewelry, Apparel, etc.).
- Doing business as (dba): dbas are not accepted. The name on the Designated Port Exception Permit must match any I/E License (if applicable), invoice(s) and other shipping documents that accompany the shipment to or from the United States.
- Principal Officer is the person in charge of the listed business. The principal officer is the person responsible for the application and any permitted activities. Often the principal officer is a Director or President. Primary Contact is the person at the business who will be available to answer questions about the application or permitted activities.
 - Primary Contact for foreign entity is the U.S. Agent who will be available to answer questions about the application or permitted activities and can be the preparer of the application.

 - e. Wild Bird Conservation Act (16 U.S.C. 4901-4916), 50 CFR 15;
 - f. Lacey Act: Injurious Wildlife (18 U.S.C. 42), 50 CFR 16;
 - g. Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (TIAS 8249), <http://www.cites.org/>, 50 CFR 23;
 - h. General Provisions, 50 CFR 10;
 - i. General Permit Procedures, 50 CFR 13; and
 - j. Wildlife Provisions (Import/export/transport), 50 CFR 14.
2. Information requested in this form is purely voluntary. However, submission of requested information is required in order to process applications for permits authorized under the above laws. Failure to provide all requested information may be sufficient cause for the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service to deny the request. Response is not required unless a currently valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number is displayed on the form.
3. Certain applications for permits authorized under the Endangered Species Act of 1973 (16 U.S.C. 1539) and the Marine Mammal Protection Act of 1972 (16 U.S.C. 1374) will be published in the Federal Register as required by the two laws.
4. Disclosures outside the Department of the Interior may be made without the consent of an individual under the routine uses listed below, if the disclosure is compatible with the purposes for which the record was collected. (Ref. 68 FR 52611, September 4, 2003)
 - a. Routine disclosure to subject matter experts, and Federal, tribal, State, local, and foreign agencies, for the purpose of obtaining advice relevant to making a decision on an application for a permit or when necessary to accomplish a FWS function related to this system of records.
 - b. Routine disclosure to the public as a result of publishing Federal Register notices announcing the receipt of permit applications for public comment or notice of the decision on a permit application.
 - c. Routine disclosure to Federal, tribal, State, local, or foreign wildlife and plant agencies for the exchange of information on permits granted or denied to assure compliance with all applicable permitting requirements.
 - d. Routine disclosure to Captive-bred Wildlife registrants under the Endangered Species Act for the exchange of authorized species, and to share information on the captive breeding of these species.
 - e. Routine disclosure to Federal, tribal, State, and local authorities who need to know who is permitted to receive and rehabilitate sick, orphaned, and injured birds under the Migratory Bird Treaty Act and the Bald and Golden Eagle Protection Act; federally permitted rehabilitators; individuals seeking a permitted rehabilitator with whom to place a bird in need of care; and licensed veterinarians who receive, treat, or diagnose sick, orphaned, and injured birds.
 - f. Routine disclosure to the Department of Justice, or a court, adjudicative, or other administrative body or to a party in litigation before a court or adjudicative or administrative body, under certain circumstances.
 - g. Routine disclosure to the appropriate Federal, tribal, State, local, or foreign governmental agency responsible for investigating, prosecuting, enforcing, or implementing statutes, rules, or licenses, when we become aware of a violation or potential violation of such statutes, rules, or licenses, or when we need to monitor activities associated with a permit or regulated use.
 - h. Routine disclosure to a congressional office in response to an inquiry to the office by the individual to whom the record pertains.
 - i. Routine disclosure to the Government Accountability Office or Congress when the information is required for the evaluation of the permit programs.
 - j. Routine disclosure to provide addresses obtained from the Internal Revenue Service to debt collection agencies for purposes of locating a debtor to collect or compromise a Federal claim against the debtor or to consumer reporting agencies to prepare a commercial credit report for use by the FWS.
5. For individuals, personal information such as home address and telephone number, financial data, and personal identifiers (social security number, birth date, etc.) will be removed prior to any release of the application.
6. The public reporting burden on the applicant for information collection varies depending on the activity for which a permit is requested. The relevant burden for an Designated Port Exception Permit application is 1.25 hours. This burden estimate includes time for reviewing instructions, gathering and maintaining data and completing and reviewing the form. You may direct comments regarding the burden estimate or any other aspect of the form to the Service Information Collection Clearance Officer, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, MS BPHC, 5275 Leesburg Pike, Falls Church, VA 22041-3803 (mail). Please include "1018-0092" in the subject line of your comments.

Freedom of Information Act – Notice

For organizations, businesses, or individuals operating as a business (i.e., permittees not covered by the Privacy Act), we request that you identify any information that should be considered privileged and confidential business information to allow the Service to meet its responsibilities under FOIA.
