PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT STATEMENT Under the access to employee exposure and medical records standard, employers must, upon request, assure the access of each designated representative to the employee medical records of any employee who has given the designated representative specific written consent (29 CFR 1910.1020(e)(2)(ii)(B)). Appendix A of the standard contains a sample form which may be used to document written consent for access to employee medical records. According to the Paperwork Reduction Act, an Agency may not conduct or sponsor, and no persons are required to respond to, a collection of information unless such collection displays a valid OMB control number. Use of this sample form is entirely optional. This sample form will assist employers to ensure compliant records access documentation. OSHA estimates employer burden for the completion of this collection of information is 5 minutes (.08 hours) per request. These estimates include the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and, completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to OSHAPRA@dol.gov or to OSHA's Directorate of Standards and Guidance, Department of Labor, Room N-3718, 200 Constitution Ave., NW, Washington, DC; 20210; Attn: Paperwork Reduction Act Comment.
