CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Personal (name, date of birth, social security number, claim type, miner's date of death), medical, and financial. Information gathered in connection with investigations concerning possible violations of Federal law, whether civil or criminal, under the authorizing legislation and related Acts. This record also contains investigative records and the work product of the Department of Labor and other governmental personnel and consultants involved in the investigations. If the individual has received benefits to which he or she is not entitled, the system may contain consumer credit reports correspondence to and from the debtor, information or records relating to the debtor's current whereabouts, assets, liabilities, income and expenses, debtor's personal financial statements, and other information such as the nature, amount and history of a claim filed by an individual covered by this system, and other records and reports relating to the implementation of the Debt Collection Act of 1982 including any investigative records or administrative review matters. The individual records listed herein are included only as pertinent to the individual claimant.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

30 U.S.C. 901 et seq., 20 CFR 725.1 et seq.

PURPOSE(S):

To maintain records that are used to process all aspects of claims for black lung (pneumoconiosis) benefits under the provisions of the Black Lung Benefits Act, as amended, including claims filed by miners and their surviving spouses, children, dependent parents and siblings. These records are also used to process the recoupment of overpayments under the Act.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

In addition to those universal routine uses listed in the General Prefatory Statement of this document, disclosure of relevant and necessary information may be made to the following:

a. Mine operators (and/or any party providing the operator with benefits insurance) who have been determined potentially liable for the claim at any time after the filing of a claim for Black Lung Benefits for the purpose of determining liability for payment.

b. State workers' compensation agencies and the Social Security Administration for the purpose of determining offsets as specified under the Act.

c. Doctors and medical services providers for the purpose of obtaining medical evaluations, physical rehabilitation or other services.

d. Other Federal agencies conducting scientific research concerning the incidence and prevention of black lung disease.

e. Representatives of the claimant for the purpose of processing the claim, responsible operator and program representation on contested issues.

f. Labor unions and other voluntary employee associations of which the claimant is a member for the purpose of assisting the member.

g. Contractors providing automated data processing services to the Department of Labor, or to any agency or entity to which release is authorized, where the contractor is providing a service relating to the purpose for which the information can be released.

h. Federal, state or local agencies if necessary to obtain information relevant to a Departmental determination of initial or continuing eligibility for program benefits, including whether benefits have been or are being paid improperly; whether dual benefits prohibited under any federal or state law are being paid; and including salary offset and debt collection procedures, including any action required by the Debt Collection Act of 1982.

i. Debt collection agency that DOL has contracted for collection services to recover indebtedness owed to the United States.

j. Internal Revenue Service for the purpose of obtaining taxpayer mailing addresses in order to locate such taxpayers to collect, compromise, or write-off a Federal claim against the taxpayer; discharging an indebtedness owed by an individual.

k. Credit Bureaus for the purpose of receiving consumer credit reports identifying the assets, liabilities, income and expenses of a debtor to ascertain the debtor's ability to pay a debt and to establish a payment schedule.

Note: Disclosure of information contained in the file to a claimant or a person who is duly authorized to act on the claimant's or beneficiary's behalf may be made over the telephone. Disclosure over the telephone will only be done where the requestor provides appropriate identifying information to OWCP personnel. Telephonic disclosure of information is essential to allow OWCP to efficiently perform its functions in adjudicating and servicing claims.

DISCLOSURE TO CONSUMER REPORTING AGENCIES:

The amount, status and history of overdue debts; the name and address, taxpayer identification (SSAN), and other information necessary to establish the identity of a debtor, the agency and program under which the claim arose, are disclosed pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(12) to consumer reporting agencies as defined by the Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681a(f), or in accordance with the Federal Claims Collection Act of 1966 as amended (31 U.S.C. 3711(e) for the purpose of encouraging the repayment of an overdue debt.
