WHAT TO REPORT

The kinds of events that you must report to Social Security are listed below. Check any of the events that apply to you and fill in any other information requested about the event.

FAILURE TO REPORT

If you do not report events as shown on this form, you may not be paid some or all of the benefits due you, or you may be overpaid, in which case, you will have to pay back any benefits you received that were not due you.

Also, if you conceal or fail to disclose a report event with an intent to fraudulently obtain benefits either in a greater amount than is due or when no payment is authorized, you may be FINED, IMPRISONED, or both, as provided in section 208 of the Social Security Act.

OTHER USES WHICH MAY BE MADE OF THE INFORMATION ON THIS REPORT

Privacy Act Statement
Collection and Use of Personal Information

See Revised Privacy Act Statement Attached

Sections 202(d), 203(f), and 205(a) of the Social Security Act, as amended, authorize us to collect this information. We will use the information you provide to determine continued entitlement of student benefits and to determine correct benefit amounts.

Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide us with all or part of the information may prevent an accurate and timely decision on any claim filed.

We rarely use the information you supply us for any purpose other than to make a determination regarding benefits entitlement. However, we may use the information for the administration of our programs including sharing information:

1. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from our records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office and Department of Veterans Affairs); and,
2. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to ensure the integrity and improvement of our programs (e.g., to the Bureau of the Census and to private entities under contract with us).

A complete list of when we may share your information with others, called routine uses, is available in our Privacy Act Systems of Records Notice 60-0089, entitled, Claims Folder System. Additional information about this and other system of records notices and our programs are available online at www.socialsecurity.gov or at your local Social Security office.

We may share the information you provide to other health agencies through computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State or local government agencies. We use the information from these programs to establish or verify a person's eligibility for federally funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect payments or delinquent debts under these programs.

Paperwork Reduction Act Statement - This information collection meets the requirements of 44 U.S.C. § 3507, as amended by section 2 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. You do not need to answer these questions unless we display a valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number. We estimate that it will take about 6 minutes to read the instructions, gather the facts, and answer the questions. Send only comments relating to our time estimate above to: SSA, 6401 Security Blvd, Baltimore, MD 21235-6401.
