NOTICE TO APPLICANT

Authority for Requiring Submission of Information in Application – The applicant is hereby notified that Ex-Im Bank and SBA request the information in this application under the authority of the Export-Import Bank Act of 1945, as amended (12 U.S.C. 635 et seq.) and section 7(a)(14) of the Small Business Act (“SB Act”), (15 U.S.C. 636(a)(14)), respectively. Providing the requested information is mandatory (except, see Privacy Act notice below concerning social security number), and failure to provide the requested information may result in SBA/Ex-Im Bank being unable to determine the applicant’s eligibility for financial assistance. Unless a currently valid OMB control number is displayed on this form (see upper right of each page), SBA/Ex-Im Bank may not require the information requested in this application, and applicants are not required to provide such information.

Submission of Social Security Number (Privacy Act notice) – Under the Privacy Act, the applicant is not required to provide social security number information, and failure to provide social security information may not affect any right, benefit, or privilege to which applicant is entitled. Disclosures of name and other personal identifiers are required for a benefit, however, and SBA requires an applicant seeking financial assistance to provide sufficient information to allow SBA to make a character and credit determination concerning individuals that are borrowers, principals, and guarantors. In determining whether an individual is of good character, SBA considers the person’s integrity, candor, and disposition toward criminal actions. In making loans pursuant to section 7(a) of the SB Act (15 U.S.C. 636(a)(6)), SBA is required to have reasonable assurance that the loan is of sound value and will be repaid, or that it is in the best interest of the Government to grant the financial assistance requested. Additionally, SBA is specifically authorized to verify the applicant’s criminal history, or lack thereof, pursuant to section 7(a)(1) of the SB Act (15 U.S.C. 636(a)(1)(B)). Further, for all forms of assistance, SBA is authorized to make all investigations necessary to ensure that a person has not engaged in acts that violate or will violate the SB Act or the Small Business Investment Act (15 U.S.C. 634 and 687b(a)). For these purposes, applicant is asked to voluntarily provide social security numbers to assist SBA in making character determinations and to distinguish the individuals listed in this application from other individuals with the same or similar name or other personal identifier.

The Privacy Act authorizes SBA to make certain “routine uses” of information provided by that Act. One such routine use is that when this information indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal, or administrative in nature, SBA may refer it to the appropriate agency, whether Federal, State, local or foreign, charged with responsibility for or otherwise involved in investigation, prosecution, enforcement or prevention of such violations. Another routine use is to assist in obtaining credit bureau reports, including business credit reports on the small business borrower and consumer credit reports and scores on the principals of the small business and guarantors on the loan for purposes of originating, servicing, and liquidating small business loans and for purposes of routine periodic loan portfolio management and lender monitoring. See 69 F.R. 58598, 58617 (and any subsequently published notices) for additional background and other routine uses.

Disclosure – Ex-Im Bank and SBA will hold confidential all information provided in the application, subject only to disclosure as required under the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552), the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a), the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978 (12 U.S.C. 3401), or any other law or court order.

Public Burden Statement – Reporting for this collection of information is estimated to average 2.5 hours per response, including reviewing instructions, searching data sources, gathering information, and completing and reviewing the application. Send comments regarding the burden estimate, including suggestions for reducing it, to Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project OMB# 3048-003, Washington, DC 20503.

STATEMENTS REQUIRED BY LAW AND EXECUTIVE ORDER

Federal executive agencies, including the Small Business Administration (SBA) and the Export-Import Bank (Ex-Im), are required to withhold or limit financial assistance, to impose special conditions on approved loans, to provide special notices to applicants or borrowers and to require special reports and data from borrowers in order to comply with legislation passed by the Congress and Executive Orders issued by the President and by provisions of various inter-agency agreements. SBA has issued regulations and procedures that implement these laws and executive orders, and they are contained in Parts 112, 113, 116, and 117, Title 13, Code of Federal Regulations Chapter 1, or Standard Operating Procedures.

Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552)

This law provides, with some exceptions, that SBA and Ex-IM Bank must supply information reflected in agency files and records to a person requesting it. SBA information about approved loans that will be automatically released includes, among other things, statistics on SBA’s loan programs (individual borrowers are not identified in the statistics) and other information such as the names of the borrowers (and their officers, directors, stockholders or partners), the collateral pledged to secure the loan, the amount of the loan, its purpose in general terms and the maturity. Proprietary information on a borrower contained in either SBA or Ex-Im files would not routinely be made available to third parties. All requests under this act are to be addressed to the nearest SBA or Ex-Im Bank office and should be identified as a Freedom of Information request.

Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978 (12 U.S.C. 3401)

This is notice to you as required by the Financial Privacy Act of 1978, of SBA’s access rights to financial records held by financial institutions that are or have been doing business with you or your business, including any financial institutions participating in a loan or loan guarantee. The law provides that SBA shall have a right of access to your financial records in connection with its consideration of administration of assistance to you in the form of a Government loan or loan guaranty agreement. SBA is required to provide a certificate of its compliance with the Act to a financial institution in connection with its first request for access to your financial records, after which no further certification is required for subsequent accesses. The law also provides that SBA's access rights continue for the term of any approved loan or loan guaranty agreement. No further notice to you of SBA's access rights is required during the term of any such agreement.

The law also authorizes SBA to transfer to another Government authority any financial records included in an application for a loan, or concerning an approved loan or loan guarantee, as necessary to process, service or foreclose on a loan or loan guarantee or to collect on a defaulted loan or loan guarantee. No other transfer of your financial records to another Government authority will be permitted by SBA except as required or permitted by law.

Debt Collection Act of 1982 Deficit Reduction Act of 1984 (31 U.S.C. 3701 et seq. and other titles)

These laws require SBA to aggressively collect any loan payments which become delinquent. SBA must obtain your taxpayer identification number when you apply for a loan. If you receive a loan, and do not make payments as they come due, SBA may take one or more of the following actions:

- Report the status of your loan(s) to credit bureaus
- Hire a collection agency to collect your loan
- Offset your income tax refund or other amounts due to you from the Federal Government

- Refer your loan to the Department of Justice or other attorneys for litigation
- Foreclose on collateral or take other action permitted in the loan instruments.

Flood Disaster Protection Act (42 U.S.C. 4011)

Regulations have been issued by the Federal Insurance Administration (FIA) and by SBA implementing this act and its amendments. These regulations prohibit SBA from making certain loans in an FIA designated floodplain unless Federal flood insurance is purchased as a condition of the loan. Failure to maintain the required level of flood insurance makes the applicant ineligible for any future financial assistance from SBA under any program, including disaster assistance.

Executive Orders 11988 and 11990 – Floodplain Management and Wetland Protection (42 F.R. 26951 and 42 F.R. 26961)

The SBA discourages any settlement in or development of a floodplain or a wetland. This statement is to notify all SBA loan applicants that such actions are hazardous to both life and property and should be avoided. The additional cost of flood preventive construction must be considered in addition to the possible loss of all assets and investments in future floods.

Occupational Safety and Health Act (15 U.S.C. 651 et seq.)

This legislation authorizes the Occupational Safety and Health Administration in the Department of Labor to require businesses to modify facilities and procedures to protect employees or pay penalty fees. In some instances the business can be forced to cease operations or be prevented from starting operations in a new facility. Therefore, in some instances SBA may require additional information from an applicant to determine whether the business will be in compliance with OSHA regulations an allowed to operate its facility after the loan is approved and disbursed. Signing this form as borrower is a certification that the OSHA requirements that apply to the borrower's business have been determined and the borrower to the best of its knowledge is in compliance.
