INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS FORM

As a Trustee, you are required to deposit all DoD funds received in a separate bank account, set up under your name as Trustee for the service member. A report of the administration of the funds received is required by this office. These reports must show dates (month and year), total amounts, and reasons for payments made. The back of this form may be used for reporting this information. Bank statements must be furnished to support payments made. Failure to return this form with the required documents, failure to keep proper records of the money spent, or the improper use of military pay may result in the withholding of future funds and termination of your Trusteeship. Obtain permission from this office for purchases of $500 or more, other than normal living expenses. Return completed form to the above address.
